NEBRASKA SENATOR DEPLORES SILENCE ON OIL SCANDALS

A "Direct Slap" Given Farmers At Kansas City, Asserts Solon, In Expressing Dissatisfaction With Party Nominee And Resolutions Adopted —Declares Power Trust, Hoovers, Daughertys, Sinclairs, Dohenys, Falls, Smoots, Hayses, And Machine Politicians Will Be Happy.

WASHINGTON, June 16—(By the Associated Press)—Dissatisfied with the republican platform and with the party nominee, Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, in a statement today declared that the action of the republican convention at Kansas City "will be a sad disappointment to every progressive citizen in the United States."

A "direct slap" had been given the farmers at Kansas City, he said, at the same time deploring silence on the activities of the power interests, disregard of the disclosures made by the investigation of the naval oil leases, and silence as to Boulder Dam, Muscle Shoals and the "lame duck" constitutional mendment.

Beginning with Senator Fess, Ohio, Senator Norris made attacks on Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general; Senator Smoot of Utah, chairman of the platform committee; William E. Vare, Bascom Slemp and Irvine L. Lenroot, former senator from Wisconsin.

Says Daugherty Defended.

"Senator Fess, the keynoter of the convention, defended Daugherty on the floor of the senate," he said, and opposed the investigation.

"Mabel Walker Willebrandt, chairman of the important committee on credentials—the committee that was so careful to seat all the Hoover delegates from the solid south — while she was assistant attorney general of the United States went to New York to testify in behalf of Daugherty.

"Senator Smoot, who was chairman of the platform committee and was one of Hoover's lieutenants, was disclosed in the oil investigation to have gone secretly to Fall's apartments to advise with him about his defense.

"When the psychological moment came it was no other person than Boss Vare, the leader of the Philadelphia political machine — the man who, on account of the disgraceful proceedings in the Pennsylvania primary, was excluded from the United States senate—it was this same Vare who compelled the

FIRST LUTHERAN PASTOR RESIGNS

Rev. D. Verner Swanson Accepts Call From Gowrie, Ia.

The Rev. D. Verner Swanson has resigned as pastor of the First Lutheran church of Lincoln, and has accepted a call from the Lutheran church at Gowrie, Ia. The pastor expects to take up the work in his new charge of the patter part of August.

Rev. Swanson has been pastor of the First Lutheran church for almost 9 years, and during this time the congregation has enjoyed a steady growth. Rev. Swanson is a Bible teacher of note, and is in demand throughout the Augustana synod of the Lutheran church as leader of Bible conferences.

Rev. Swanson has always taken a deep interest in the Lutheran student work at the University of Nebraska, and is a member of the Lutheran student committee, which is composed of pastors and laymen from the Lutheran churches of Lincoln.

A successor to Rev. Swanson has not yet been seelcted.

FIRE DESTROYS DRY SHRINE AT PRAIRIE HOME

The "little white church" of the Methodist congregation at Prairie Home went up in flames early Wednesday morning.

Known as the birthplace of the W. C. T. U. movement in Nebraska, this church was bought recently by I. W. Jacoby, who moved it several hundred feet south of its original site to make way for a new church edifice. Since that time, it had been used by the members for a meeting place pending completion of their own building.

Mr. Jacoby carried $800 insurance on the building, which he says is somewhat less than its value. Origin o fthe fire, which had gained great headway before discovery, is unknown.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST THREE BANK ROBBERS

KANSAS CITY, June 16—(AP)—Confessions have been obtained from three of four men arrested in connection with the holdup of the Home Trust Co. here Wednesday and the slaying of James H. Smith, traffic patrolman, Lincoln R. Toyne, chief of police, said today.

Charges of murder and robbery would be filed against Tony Mangiarcino, Carl Nasello and John Messino, named as actual participants in the holdup, Toyne said, while Maurice Nagle, who admitted renting the automobile used in the robbery, and his wife would be charged as accessories.

At a cache east of the city, where the $19,000 loot from the Home Trust Co. robbery was divided, officers found a sub-machine gun, a sawed-off shotgun and a number of pistols believed to have been used in other holdups here.

LOWDEN DECIDED WITHDRAW AFTER A HOTEL CONFERENCE

CHICAGO Ill., June 16—(AP)—Fomer Gov. Frank O. Lowden decided to withdraw his name as a candidate for the republican presidential nomination after a conference with supporters in the Illinois delegation.

It first was thought Lowden alone determined that the party platform adopted by the Kansas City convention did not conform with his ideas on farm relief, and the announcement was a complete surprise to the state's representatives there.

Most of the delegation, including Senator Charles Deneen, was unaware of the decision until Otis F. Glenn of Murphysboro announced it from the platform.

It since has become known that several of the Illinoisans, including Roy O. West, the national committeeman, Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, Clarence F. Buck of Monmouth and Louis L. Emmerson of Mt. Vernon attended a conference in Mr. Lowden's hotel suite, and there the former governor's decision to withdraw was reached.

LINDY HOPS OFF TO GET DEGREE

Alma Mater at Wisconsin Will Confer Honor On Lone Eagle.

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., June 16—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh hopped off at 9:25 a. m., daylight saving time today for Madison, Wis., where he is to receive an honorary degree from his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin. He expected to stop at Buffalo and Detroit enroute.

The Colonel was accompanied by William B. Mayo, an official of the Stout All Metal Airplane Co.

M'NARY ASSERTS HOOVER ANXIOUS RELIEVE FARMER

Confers With G. O. P. Presidential Nominee About Farm Aid.

EXPECTING ACTION IN NEXT CONGRESS

Indicates He Would Accept Measure Without Equalization Fee.

WASHINGTON, June 16—(By the Associated Press)—Senator McNary republican, Oregon, co-author of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill vetoed by President Coolidge conferred with Secretary Hoover, republican presidential nominee today. McNary after the conference said he found Secretary Hoover "sympathetic and anxious to relieve the distress of our farm population."

A statement issued by the Oregon senator after the conference was accepted as indicating he was willing to abandon the equalization fee of the farm relief bill.

"In my judgment, the enactment of the bill that passed the last session of congress with the omission of the equalization fee would improve the condition of agriculture," McNary said. "At least it would supply the basis upn which helpful legislation could be fashioned."

McNary said if the remedy was tried and found to be ineffective, in his opinion congress and the administration would unite in an effort to devise a more efective remedy that would prove sound.

"In the absence of the president, who I believe to be in accord. I have discussed the subject with the republican nominee, Mr. Herbert Hoover, and found him sympathetic and anxious to relieve the distress of our farm population, and I bespeak for 7,000,000 farmers and their able leaders the same fine offer of assistance and consideration to the end that farm relief legislation may be enacted and approved at the next session of congress.

Hoover Himself Silent.

Secretary Hoover had nothing to say regarding his fifteen minute interview with the senator, who was the only caller this morning. McNary's statement said:

"The agricultural plank in the republican platform commits the party to the enactment of legisla-

NO STATEMENT FROM GOVERNOR

But George Woods Says Hoover Will Be Elected.

Also Declares Convention Was Controlled By Vare.

Governor McMullen returned to Lincoln on an early morning train from Kansas City but remained away from his office at the capitol and kept out of the way of newspaper reporters who were waiting there to interview him on the outcome of the republican national convention.

Before starting home, the Nebraska executive was quoted in press dispatches from Kansas City as saying that he was not in favor of bolting the g. o. p. ticket and forming a third party, and that he proposed to continue his efforts within the republican ranks for legislation to help the agricultural industry.

This was a different attitude from that the governor had taken a few weeks ago, when he gave out at one time a statement, that he might support the democratic nominee for president if the republicans failed to nominate a candidate friendly to the McNary-Haugen "farm relief" plan, and would mean the formation of a new "farm party" in the west and south to hold the balance of power as between the other two.

A telephone call to the governor's mansion elicited word from Mrs. McMullen that the governor was probably at his office; but when newspaper men called there his secretary, Frank Johnson, said he had not put in appearance. Johnson professed to have no information as to when his chief might show up.

George Woods Stays "Regular."

Mark W. Woods, colleague of Governor McMullen on the Nebraska delegation and co-worker with him in the "farm army" project and the attempt to nominate either Lowden or Dawes for president, stayed over in Kansas City and will not be back until Sunday. He also had declared his intention to "continue the fight for farm equality within the republican party."

George J. Woods, brother and business partner of Mark, who returned from Kansas City on the night train, offered some spicy comment as to how the convention was controlled and the presidential nomination made, but wound up by saying:

"We'll all get busy and elect Hoover."

"While there is much dissatisfaction with the platform and the friends

W. M. WIDENER DIES SUDDENLY

Well Known Lincoln Man Passes Away at Tulsa, Okla.

Word of the sudden death of William M. Widener, about 70 years old at Tulsa, Okla., was received in Lincoln Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Raymond.

Mr. Widener for many years was connected with the Lincoln Drug company, first as an agent and then as an executive and stockholder. As a traveling man, he was well known throughout the state. He had been a resident of Lincoln about 30 years.

He and Mrs. Widener left last Saturday to attend a convention at Tulsa of the Travelers' Protective association, of which he was former state president for Nebraska. At the time of his departure, friends here say, he seemed to be in good health. He drove as far as Kansas City.

He was a member of the original park board in Lincoln and was a deputy hotel commissioner under Governor McKelvie. In 1926 he was a republican candidate for secretary of state. He was also the founder of Smith Dorsey Co.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, W. O. Widener of Kansas City. The Widener home is at 133 South Twenty-ninth street.

ASK LINDBERGH TO "KEEP COOL WITH COOLIDGE"

MADISON, Wis., June 16—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will receive the first invitation to "keep cool with Coolidge" in Wisconsin this summer.

Gov. Fred R. Zimmerman is mailing to the flying colonel an invitation to spend his vacation in the state. Affixed to the envelope containing the letter is a sticker, issued by the outdoor club of Wisconsin which bears the president's picture and the admonition quoted.

Lindbergh is the first person to whom a letter has been addressed carrying the outdoor club's sticker. The organization expects that thousands of letters going out of the state during the tourist season will carry that invitation pasted on the back of the envelope.

2 PAYMASTERS ARE KIDNAPED

Five Chicago Bandits Escape After Car Overturns.

CHICAGO, June 16—(AP)—After kidnaping two paymasters of the American Maize Co., Hammond, Ind., today, five armed men forced them into an automobile and raced toward Chicago, the car overturning and pinning the paymasters under it when it crashed into a telephone pole in Hegewich, a suburb. The robbers escaped.

FARMER KILLED BY FLYING PIECE OF GRINDSTONE

OSHKOSH, Neb., June 16—(AP)—When a grindstone burst while he was sharpening a sickle on his farm near here Friday, Joseph Wengel, 45, was killed instantly. The grindstone, being turned by power from a tractor, split into five parts, one piece weighing five pounds striking Wengel in the chest.

RAIN CAUSES COOLIDGE TO STAY AT LODGE

Postpones Visit to Superior Because of Heavy Downpour.

RESTFUL NIGHT AT NEW HOME

Will Spend Afternoon Fishing; Mrs. Coolidge Is Better.

SUPERIOR, Wis., June 16—(AP)—Faced by a steady downpour of rain in Superior while at his lodge thirty-three miles away the sun was shining brightly, President Coolidge decided early today to postpone his first call at the executive offices until later in the day.

The deep waters of the Brule, babbling around Cedar Island lodge, called him instead to try his luck some more with the rod and reel. Apparently satisfied with his first fishing experience yesterday, Mr. Coolidge ordered his fishing tackle brought out while he took a long walk through the estate, familiarizing himself thoroughly with its layout.

Both he and Mrs. Coolidge were reported as having passed a very restful first night at the summer residence, after a long evening quietly spent by a big log fire. Mrs. Coolidge, through suffering no ill effects from the long journey from Washington, decided to take her morning easily and, although dressed, lay down again in the porch of the residence, enjoying the cool breeze sweeping off Lake Superior.

President Up Early.

Mr. Coolidge was up very early today. Accompanied by an aide he tramped through some of the trails around the lodge into the virgin wilderness surrounding it. He had occasion to observe the wild deer on the estate, which, unmolested for so long, showed almost no fear of man. These are so numerous on the estate that they swarm in herds through the woods, invading and walking unconcernedly among the tents of the company of infantry camped on the edge of the presidential reservation.

Although President Coolidge expressed his intention this morning of fishing again today, no definite indication came out of the summer

STRONG TICKET SAYS M'KELVIE

Results of Convention Bode Well For Farm Area He Thinks.

Griswold Thinks East Discontended With G.O.P. Choice.

Confidence that another year will see the agricultural problem disposed of insofar as it is possible for the government to help, and the opinion that the Hoover-Curtis ticket nominated at the republican convention in Kansas City will be unusually strong and helpful to the midlewest, were expressed by Samuel R. McKelvie upon his return to Lincoln.

McKelvie was the leader of the Nebraska Hoover forces at the convention and was one of the candidates mentioned for the nomination for vice president.

Commenting upon that candidacy he said Saturday morning:

"So far as my candidacy was concerned, I never took it seriously. I did not seek the nomination—in fact I did not want it. My interests are all in Nebraska, and my best friends are here. I want to stay here and help promote the welfare of our principal industry, agriculture. In doing this, I can be of greater service, not only to the state, but to myself. Nebraska had it been called upon to do so, would have cast nineteen votes for Senator Curtis for vice president, the poll of the delegation having been taken when the motion was made to make the nomination by acclamation.

"Senator Curtis is a regular republican who has a sympathetic understanding of the needs of agriculture. He will be at all times in harmony with Mr. Hoover, and the two will make an unusually strong team working for the interests of the central west."

"The result of the convention was a very happy one, "Mrs. McKelvie said", and augurs well for the interests of this region. Never before has the territory west of the Mississippi river recived such bountiful recognition at the hands of any political party.

Praises Agricultural Plank.

"The agricultural plank of the platform that was approved by the convention promises federal aid and assistance in co-operation. Mr. Hoover comes from the region in which commodity cooperation has made the greatest progress. Moreover, his genius for organization and centralization as a means to more economical distribution insures for the farmer a type of leadership in

LOCKE FAILS TO QUALIFY IN 100-METER RACE

Nebraska Sprinter Loses Out in Semi-Final Heat.

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—In a sensational finish that saw all four finalists blanketed, Frank Hussey of the New York A. C. today captured the 100-meter final in the eastern Olympic track field tryout. He beat out Henry Cuming of the Newark A. C. by inches in 11 seconds flat.

YANKEE STADIUM, N E W YORK, June 16—(I. N. S.)—Francis Hussey, former schoolboy, former collegian and present flash on the cinders, showed the world this afternoon what it may expect at Amsterdam by winning his 100-meter heat in the eastern Olympic tryouts in the clinking time of 10 4-5 seconds. Although running well within his best, Hussey's time missed the world's and Olympic record for the distance for a fifth-second. The other heat winners, Henry Cumming, unattached; Louis Clark, Newark A. C., andw Al Miller, Boston, couldn't better the 11 second.

Roland Locke, former Nebraskan, again proved he is not the man he was by finishing second to Cumming in 11 2-5 seconds, and failing to run one-two in his semi-final heat.

These were won by Hussey and Cumming in 11 seconds each.

The major shut out of the heats was that of Cheta Bowman, Olympic point winner in 1924 and present national champion. He finished fourth in the fourth heat behind Miller and Bob McAllister in 11 seconds.

Perfect weather conditions and a crowd of 10,000 graced the occasion.

The first entry to assure himself of a trip to Boston was Sid Robinson, ex-southerner now running for the New York A. C. He won the 1,500 meter event in the creditable time of 3.59 1-5.

Robinson laid off the early pace and didn't make his play until a furlong from the tape. Then he stepped around Bill Cox, Penn State entry, to come on and win by twelve yards. Cox, who had gone to the pace entering the bell lap, blew up within sight of the finish and didn't land in the money at all.

Permit Railroad to Lower Coal Rates

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16—(AP)—Permission was given the Baltimore & Ohio railroad today to make reductions on lake cargo coal from its lines in northern territory equivalent to those made by other northern railroads, effective within ten days and without the usual thirty day requirement of posting of new schedules. The result of the commission's permission will be to get the 20 per cent per ton reduction in lake cargo effective on the Baltimore & Ohio about June 26 or June 27, whereas if the permission had not been given the Baltimore & Ohio mines would not have been able to take advantage of the lower rates before July 14 or 15.

SAYS FARMERS NEED ORGANIZE

Master National Grange Advocates Reliance Upon Organization.

SEDALIA, Mo., June 16—(AP—The American farmer was advised to place more reliance upon himself and his own organizations and less upon the government, politicians and party platforms by L. J. Taber, master of the national grange, in an address here today.

"It is proper to fight for recognition for agriculture in party platforms," Mr. Taber said, "but it is more important to strengthen and develop farm organizat on.

"Agriculture is not asking favors, but is insisting upon equality. The lack of organization in a business way among the farmers has permitted the legislative and industrial fabric of the nation to overlook the real needs of the farmer."

The grange, Mr. Taber said, has a program that would benefit agriculture and tend to restore farm prosperity without affecting other industries. It would place a tariff on many articles now on the free list such as hides, fats and fruits; increase the tariff on all farm products as is necessary to equalize the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad, and put in force the export debenture plan as an agency to bring tariff benefits to those farm products of which there is an exportable surplus.

RISING WATER INUNDATES BIG AREA IN SOUTH

Desperate Fight To Save Homes And Crops Meets Failure When St. Francis River Levee Near Kennett, Mo., Breaks, Spreading Destruction Over Five Mile Area—Forty Thousand Acres In Arkansas Flooded And 800 Residents Of White River Valley Driven Out.

KENNETT, Mo., June 16—(By the Associated Press)—A desperate fight for homes and crops was lost today when the St. Francis river levee, six miles northwest of here, gave way, spreading waste and destruction over a five mile area. Hundreds of families were driven from their homes.

Weakened by seepage, which persisted in spite of anything that could be done by the 3,000 farmers, professional and businessmen who labored on into the night, the levee wall crashed at 1:30 this morning. The crevasse, 150 feet wide at the start, had increased to 300 feet by 8 o'clock.

Two score workmen who were on the dike at the time it went out were warned as the dirt began to move, and fled to safety.

A Call for Help.

A proclamation was issued by the mayor of Kennett asking all business houses to close and requesting that all available men be sent to strengthen the levee in anticipation of the third rise, which is expected to reach its highest proportions Tuesday or Wednesday. Authorities believe the crest of this flood will be a foot and a half higher than the one which swept the levee aside this morning.

Along the river north to Campbell workmen were making a strenuous effort to strengthen the weakened walls.

Five companies of national guardsmen have been on duty.

The river was still rising this afternoon and some believed the crest of the third rise would reach the

Student Brakeman Injured In Fall

COLUMBUS, Neb., June 16—(AP)—Boyd Caster, 22, Council Bluffs student brakeman, fell from a fast Union Pacific freight near here and was so badly injured amputation of his right arm was necessary. After being run over by the freight, he was knocked into the path of an approaching passenger train and barely escaped being struck by the locomotive. Physicians said he would recover.

EBER PROUGH, 20, DIES OF BURNS

Youth, Hurt in Explosion Wednesday at Seed House, is Dead.

Eber Prough, 20, Lincoln route 5, died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning from burns received Wednesday morning when a blow torch exploded while he was using it to generate a motor in the engine room of the Griswold company seed house, at Eighth and N streets, where he was employed. Prough was rushed to St. Elizabeth's hospital immediately after the accident.

His condition was regarded as serious from the first but after spending a restful night Thursday it was thought he would recover. A turn for the worse late Friday and a rest less night was followed by his death Saturday morning.

The burns were particularly serious on his legs and arms but spread over his body as well. When the torch exploded his clothing caught fire and before workers in the front part of the seed house heard his cries for help, Prough was seriously burned. The fire resulting from the explosion did practically no damage to the building or contents.

Prough was born in Lincoln twenty years ago. He had lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Prough, on a farm a mile north of Lincoln on First street for several years.

Prough was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and planned to take part in the convention, which opens here Sunday. He also belonged to the Lincoln Heights Methodist church. He had been employed by the Griswold company for some time.

The survivors include his parents, a brother, Roy, and three sisters, Evelyn, Olive and Arthena, all at home. The body is at Umberger's. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

COUNTRY NEEDS AN OLD HICKORY

Morehead Says "Jim" Reed Ideal Man For Presidency.

"What we need today is an Andrew Jackson," declared Congressman John H. Morehead of Falls City before 100 members of the Saturday Noon Democratic club at the Lindell hotel. "An Old Hickory," instilled with democratic principles and the fire to fight for them" was the ideal set up by the speaker as a presidential candidate.

"We have such a man in "Jim" Reed," Mr. Morehead declared. "If we could ever get him into office we would have a man who would have the courage to stand by the rank and file of the people in the face of opposition."

The republican choices were complimented by the speaker, although he added that neither had a full conception of the scope of the problems and the needs of the republic. From an educational and scientific point of view Hoover is about the best man available but would not be as effective as Reed in fighting for the people, the former governor said.

The difficulties of keeping tab on all legislation with most conscientious efforts were brought out. If a speaker raises too many objections, he will find his measures for his own people squelched by revengeful parties, he said. Many huge appropriations are made which should not be made, he added.

SMITH ORDERS PROTECTION FOR SENATOR HEFLIN

ALBANY, N. Y., June 16—(AP)—When Senator Heflin of Alabama, arch foe of Gov. Al Smith, speaks tomorrow at the very gates of this Smith stronghold, he will have police protection, at the governor's orders, against any interference, interruption or discourtesy.

The governor has issued a formal order to his son-in-law, Maj. John A. Warner, superintendent of state police, directing that state troopers be assigned to see that Mr. Heflin and his audience are not subjected to molestation. The meeting is scheduled for Hurstville, just outside Albany.

A statement issued by Senator Heflin in Washington a few days ago said he had been informed there would be an effort on the part of "Governor Smith's Roman Catholic friends" to interfere with the Albany meeting.

HOOVER PLANS RETAIN OFFICE AS SECRETARY

Will Continue Duties, Nominee Declares in Statement.

CAMPAIGN PLANS REMAIN SECRET

Butler's Successor Will Be Named Following Conference.

WASHINGTON, June 16—(By the Associated Press.)— For the present at least, Herbert Hoover intends to retain his post as secretary of commerce, and if he has formulated any other campaign plans they remain a closely guarded secret.

Within the next week or so, however, it is expected that Mr. Hoover's program will begin to take on a definite outline, as he consults with party leaders returning from the Kansas City convention and receives their advice and opinions on the conduct of the campaign.

On Thursday, a special committee from the republican national committee, headed by Ralph Williams of Oregon, is to meet the nominee at the Willard hotel here for an expression of his wishes as to the national chairmanship.

Until this has been done no one will be named to succeed William M. Butler of Massachusetts, the incumbent. A number of men are in line for the job, including Secretary Work, James W. Good, Claudius Houston, Walter E. Brown, and Williams and Butler.

Just how soon Mr. Hoover will resign from the cabinet and devote his entire time to the campaign today was a subject for speculation.

A brief statement made public late yesterday by the nominee's secretary, George Akerson, and with his approval said merely:

A Brief Statement.

"For the present, Mr. Hoover will remain secretary of commerce. He will continue his duties in the department just as he always has done."

Akerson refused to be drawn out as to the period of time involved and it may be a matter of weeks, or again, of days. There was a general understanding, however, that the resignation would be forthcoming within the comparatively near future.

While Senator Curtis was being nominated for the vice presidency yesterday, Mr. Hoover dispatched to him a message of congratulations.

"I wish you to know," he said, "how greatly I welcome your nomination and your cooperation in the task we have before us. The party is to be congratulated upon your selection."

Earlier in the day he addressed a message of thanks to the convention through its chairman, Senator Moses of New Hampshire, in which he declared his allegiance to the principles set down in the platform which had been adopted.

ONE KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mitchell Man Loses His Life When Car Is Overturned.

Wife and Five Children Injured On Road Near Red Cloud.

(Special to The Star.)

RED CLOUD, Neb., June 16 Ward Tracy of Mitchell, Neb., was killed, his wife seriously injured and their five children, ranging in age from four to fourteen, were bruised and cut when Tracy lost control of their touring car on a level stretch of the Goldenrod highway six miles west of Red Cloud late Friday afternoon.

The entire family was pinned under the car where the members were found by Mrs. Clopine, who lives near the scene of the accident, and who heard the crash when the car turned over.

Hurrying to their help with the aid of her two small children, she made frantic efforts to release the unfortunate family, but was unable to be of any assistance until the arrival of passing motorists.

Mr. Tracy died a few minutes after being taken from beneath the car.

Mrs. Tracy was found to have sustained a broken hip as well as severe cuts and possible internal injuries. She was taken to a Hastings hospital and the children are being taken care of by local people, pending the arrival of relatives.

The family had left the home in Mitchell several weeks ago in the hopes of a change of climate being of benefit to Mrs. Tracy's health, and was returning to Franklin, where he had been working, after a short visit at the home of his brother at Hebron.

PLANE MISHAP HALTS ATTEMPT RESCUE NOBILE

Big Italian Craft Forced Down Between Vadsoe And Kings Bay.

Hobby and Braganza Now Reported Within Sight Of North Cape.

VADSOE, Norway, June 16—(AP)—Major Maddalena, Italian flier who hopped off at midnight for Kings Bay to join in the Nobile rescue work, met with a mishap today. He was forced to come down in Varanger fjord.

His plane is being towed to Vadsoe.

Hope for the possible rescue of the Nobile party today by Major Maddalena was dashed by his mishap.

The major's large twin-motored Savoia-Marchetti flying boat was the first plane expected at Kings Bay judged to be of sufficient size to pick up the marooned men. There are two planes now in northern Spitzbergen piloted by Norwegian fliers, but these machines are too small to do much more than reconnoiter.

Major Maddalena is one of the most noted of Italy's hydro-airplane experts and it was hoped that he would be able to get the plane back into the air shortly.

Preparations for the speedy departure of the plane after it finally reaches Kings Bay are being rushed and every effort will be made to get the big machine to Spitzbergen as soon as possible.

Hopes Are High.

KINGS BAY, Spitzbergen, June 16—(AP)—Speedy rescue by air of Gen. Umberto Nobile and five men adrift with him on the ice seemed today to be possible.

The large twin-motored Savoia-Marchetti flying boat, en route from Milan, left Vadsoe, Norway, at midnight for a twelve-hour flight to Kings Bay. This is the first plane available which is judged to be of sufficient size to pick up the marooned men.

At Kings Bay preparations were made for the speedy departure of the plane to the castaways. Provisions, shoes, medicines, guns and collapsible rubber boats were ready to be stored aboard the plane for its flight of some 220 miles to the region north of Northeast Land where Nobile and his men are stranded.

The flying boat has a radio and in its search can be guided by the base ship Citti di Milano, which has been in touch with General Nobile by wireless. From Nobile the exact position of the castaways and ice conditions in their neighborhood will be learned to aid the plane as it flies northward. Latest advices indicated that the northwest wind was opening up the ice field, making rescue by plane practicable.

The ice breaker Braganza and the sealing ship Hobby were within sight of North cape today and making their way through the ice floes as near as possible to General Nobile's last reported position at 80.38 north, 27.49 east. The Norwegian seaplanes piloted by Captain Riiser-Larsen and Lieut. Luetzow Holm, who are using the Hobby as a base, took off in an attempt to drop provisions and equipment to Nobile yesterday but were forced back by fog.

Later when the Braganza joined the Hobby the weather cleared and it was hoped today that the fliers would soon be able to make another trip in search of the explorers.

Paris Undisturbed Hoover Nomination

Comment in Press Lacks Enthusiasm; See No Opportunity for Changed War Debt Policy.

PARIS, June 16—(AP)—Comment upon the republican nomination of Herbert C. Hoover was neither extensive nor especially enthusiastic in the morning papers of today. The lack of enthusiasm, however, was due more to the platform upon which the republicans have placed Hoover than to the man himself.

Hoover's technical abilities, his genius for organization, his energy, his competence in financial and economic affairs and his acquaintance with foreign countries the world over were recognized by the Parisian commentators.

Le Gaulois, ultra conservative, said "there will be no great change in the foreign policies of the United States." In regard to the platform, it noted that opposition to the cancellation of war debts continued, armaments were to remain the same, America was still determined to stay out of the League of Nations, and the high tariff and prohibition would continue under Hoover as they existed under Presidents Harding and Coolidge.

The paper added: "If there is nothing to inspire great hopes, there is at least a neatness of expression which dissipates illusions."

The comment of the other papers might be summarized by that which appeared in L'Homme Libre. That paper said "Europe could not have received better encouragement to regulate her own affairs by herself" than she has in the republican platform.

TRAGEDY BRINGS BRILLIANT SOCIAL AFFAIR TO CLOSE

LONDON, June 16—(AP)— A brilliant society ball at which members of the royal family and numerous titled persons were present ended abruptly last night when a tragic accident took place causing the death of a maid and the injury of several other persons.

The ball was at the home of Walter Guinness, minister of agriculture, in Grosvenor Place.

While Princess Mary, Viscount Lascelles, many dukes, duchesses and other prominent society members were dancing on the ground floor, two maids crawled to a skylight several stories above to watch the guests in the main lobby below.

Suddenly the maids crashed through the glass, they did not fall clear to the main floor where all the dancers were gathered, but landed on the second floor lobby hitting two guests who were seated there.

One of the maids was instantly killed and the other was gravely injured, the two guests suffering only slight hurts. Then, to add to the confusion, the night watchman while investigating the accident fell on the stairs and broke his leg.

Today

A Brave Woman.
Merry, Merry Farmers.
"Hoover There."
The President Rests.

By Arthur Brisbane.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who died Thursday, will be remembered with gratitude and honor.

Possessing courage, determination and self-sacrifice of which few men would be capable, Mrs. Pankhurst led and won the battle for woman suffrage.

In her magnificent campaign she faced the contempt of dull men and stupid women. Some day the women of the world will erect to her memory the monument that she deserves.

The farmers' demonstration in Kansas City lent an artistic touch to the convention. It was suggested that Florenz Ziegfeld of the Follies had been engaged to prepare the costumes, just as he would do for a rural scene in his New York theater.

The farmers brought hay forks and hoes on their shoulders, and while they didn't sing, "We Are Merry, Merry Farmers" or stamp their hoe handles on the ground in unison, they represented a pretty picture.

What disappointed "friend of the farmer" financed that exhibition?

Americans in Paris sing George M. Cohan's war song, changed to "Hoover There."

Prsident Coolidge, leaving politics to the politicians, is off to Wisconsin's fishing grounds. Awhile ago, at the White House, showing to this writer improvements that had been made for his successor, President Coolidge said, "It is no kindness to wish me four years more of this work," and he meant it.

The country is grateful for the work he has done. And, while there was never any question of a third term, since Mr. Coolidge has been elected president only once, the people admire his unwillingness to raise the slightest third term question.

Jack Dempsey discovers that real estate provides the softest road to wealth. He sold a hotel in Los Angeles for $650 000, making a profit of $100,000 with great ease, and didn't have to hit anybody "on the point of the jaw" or let anybody hit him to make the money.

Real estate works swiftly, surely. You buy property, crowds move in your direction, mothers produce more babies, which puts up rents, and without a struggle you are worth thousands or millions more. Ask the Astors, Geolets, Gerrys. Or ask single-taxers and see them rage.

While republicans at Kansas City put "rigid prohibition enforcement" into their platform, they are putting all sorts of rigid liquids into their interiors. J. E. House, writing in confidence to Cyrus H. K. Curtis, reports that "Old Man River himself is no wetter than Kansas City," the principal ingredients of that great boom town at present being Scotch, rye, bourbon, gin and fancy drinks, if you are effeminate enough to want them.

Since Nelly Bly finished her trip around the world, and Dorothy Dix turned from straight reporting to deep philosophy, no lady writer has appeared as brilliant as Katherine Dayton. Her description of great men gathered in Kansas City from the wide-open and tight-shut spaces isn't complimentary: "They were not so much the kind of men that a girl forgets, as the kind she just wouldn't notice."

More rioting in Greece, six killed, forty wounded. Byron would be surprised to hear what happened after Greece escaped the rule of the Turks.

In Tien Tsin riots many were killed and robbed night before last. "Great carnage" is reported. gunmen were busy, the streets littered with dead, many corpses floated on the River Pei-Ho.

Wall street seemed to be recovering from its fit of nerves yesterday, and bargain hunters found it difficult in many cases to pick up their bargains. The change comes too late to save some little lambs. But they will know better next time —perhaps.

Modern Woodmen Complete Plans For Encampment

The Modern Woodmen of America promotion committee completed plans for the silver jubilee at a meeting held at the Lincoln hotel Friday night. Headquarters were opened Saturday morning at the Lincoln hotel where information will be given visitors.

The committee reported that every town in the county was arranging for floats. A band of Indian chiefs, fifty men in burlesque costume, and a float with a brass band will pass through the streets each day to announce the program. The Rock Island drill team will give an exhibition of drills and Lincoln Lodge No. 190 team also will perform daily.

In the Rainbow parade Wednesday afternoon there will be more than a dozen bands, 1,000 foresters and as many Woodmen besides a number of floats. The forester revue and a speaking program will be held at the memorial stadium immediately after the parade. The encampment and jubilee begins Sunday.

Long Fall is Fatal To Small Omaha Boy

OMAHA, Neb., June 16—(AP)—Losing his balance while playing on a steep bank in the rear of his home, Clarence Woods, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Woods, plunged 75 feet to the base of the precipice late Friday.

The lad was alone on the bank and apparently lost his balance. No witnesses to the accident could be found. At the hospital where the boy was taken it was discovered that a hemorrhage had occurred in his brain. Efforts to stop the flow were futile.

TOPEKA GREETS CHARLIE CURTIS

Enthusiastic Welcome Given Senator By Home Town.

Main Desire to Go to Bed, Says Hoover's Running Mate.

TOPEKA, Kas., June 16—(AP)—Medicine made a half century ago by his Kaw Indian kin again has proved "good" for Senator Charles Curtis and today he rested at his home here after an enthusiastic celebration of his triumph at the republican national convention.

Surrounded by his friends, the Kansas senator last night received the congratulations of thousands on his selection as running mate for Herbert Hoover. It was a welcome such as the Sunflower state reserves for illustrious native sons. And it reflected the popularity the republican vice presidential nominee has known in his many ventures since his aged Kaw grandmother, Julie Poppin, turned him from her tepee with the admonition:

"Go back to your white ancestors, my boy."

Accompanied by his son, Harry, a Chicago attorney, the senator arrived by automobile about two hours after he was nominated at Kansas City. As few persons knew of his intention to come directly here there was no reception committee waiting. Those who did know of his plans were busy arranging a celebration at the state capitol.

Waving to neighbors, who call him "Charlie," the senator greeted his sister, Mrs. Rome Colvin, and expressed a desire to go "straight to bed." He did. The home was kept quiet until dinner was served by Mrs. Colvin. She could not recall exactly what was served, but later told friends she "just prepared things she knew Charlie liked."

Charlie At Home.

Then the homecoming became more formal. Three patrolmen took up positions in front of the house to handle traffic. As the word went out that "Charlie" was home, most everyone started for the state house via Topeka boulevard where the senator lives.

With Flag day decorations still in place, Curtis banners were added and the city soon had the appearance of having long waited his arrival. A speakers stand was hastily built on the capitol grounds and loud speakers installed. Carpenters and electricians scarcely had completed their work before the trek to the capitol began.

Mobilization of brass bands was completed soon after 7 o'clock and when the senator arrived at 8 o'clock he was greeted by cameramen, who, after shooting several flashlight views, turned him over to Governor Ben S. Paulen and others of the reception committee.

"My main desire was to go straight to bed," the senator said in a brief speech. "I have not had a night's sleep in the last five days. And though I spent those wakeful nights working for the presidential nomination, I was proud to accept the second place on the ticket when it was offered to me unsought.

"I am glad to be on the ticket with that able and experienced man, Herbert Hoover."

BLACKMER HAS NO COMMENT

Missing Oil Witness Silent On Indictment Charging Perjury.

PARIS, June 16—(AP)—Henry M. Blackmer, missing witness in the Teapot Dome case, maintained his customary silence today in the face of the indictment handed down at Denver charging him with perjury and evasion of the income tax laws. He is living in a hotel in the Champs Elysee quarter.

His attorneys were unperturbed by dispatches from the United States that said the extradition of their client might be sought. They asserted they would not discuss what action they could take until confronted with the necessity of doing so.

Some other lawyers questioned whether perjury was an extraditable offense.

DEMO DELEGATION TO LEAVE FRIDAY

No One Yet Selected to Present Name of Hitchcock to the Convention.

OMAHA, Neb., June 16—(AP)—The Nebraska delegation to the democratic national convention at Houston will leave Omaha Friday evening, June 22, Mayor James C. Dahlman, delegate-at-large, said today.

The mayor said no selection of the delegate who will place the name of G. M. Hitchcock in nomination had been made and probably would not be until the delegation caucused at Houston. Chairmanship of the delegation and membership on the credentials and resolutions committee also are to be decided later.

Moscow Criticises Hoover's Selection

MOSCOW June 16, — (AP) — Pravda, official organ of the communist party, commenting on the nomination of Herbert Hoover by the republicans, says that its most important aspect was the "failure of the farmer bloc and its final capitulation before the Morgans and Mellons."

The paper says that the result spells the bankruptcy of American party bourgeoisie, leaving in the field but two parties not differing substantially from each other.

High officials refrain from commenting.

Vote Down Special Campaign Committee

Chairman Allen Authorized at Meeting Friday to Appoint Regular Executive Body.

Members of the democratic state committee, meeting Friday afternoon at the Lincoln hotel, voted down a proposal for the creation of a special campaign committee to be headed by William Ritchie of Omaha, in addition to the regular executive committee which State Chairman T. S. Allen was authorized to appoint, after conferring with candidates on the state ticket.

This suggestion was offered in a motion by E. O. McDermott of Kearney, being supported by Dr. E. O. Weber of Wahoo and Phil Tomek of David City. After a half hour's discussion it was disposed of by the tabling method.

Another motion was then passed authorizing Chairman Allen to name any special committees that might be needed to assist in the conduct of the campaign, as well as the executive committee. The latter body is to include one man and one woman from each congressional district.

Walter Hager of Hastings was reelected secretary of the state committee, over Horace M. Davis of Lincoln, by a vote of 18 to 10. L. C. Chapin of Lincoln was unanimously re-elected as treasurer, and Frank Warner of Norfolk was chosen as vice chairman, both to succeed themselves. The new vice chairwoman is Mrs. C. J. Ryan of Grand Island.

National Committeeman Arthur F. Mullen of Omaha was present and took part in the discussion of various matters, but nothing was said in regard to the national convention at Houston or regarding candidates for president and vice president.

All of the state candidates except L. A. Larson for land commissioner were present. C. W. Bryan, nominee for governor, talked on the prospects of success in the coming campaign, which he regarded as very favorable.

An attendance of 40 or more, with several proxies in addition, was counted at the meeting. The state committee will be called together again by Chairman Allen soon after the Houston convention.

COOLIDGE TRIES HAND AT FISHING WISCONSIN LAKE

President Loses No Time Exploring Waters for Wily Trout.

He and First Lady Are Pleased With Coolness at Cedar Lodge.

SUPERIOR, Wis., June 16—(AP)—Having settled down yesterday in his new summer home and having with hardly any delay at all explored the fishing possibilities of his new surroundings, there only remained today for President Coolidge to acquaint himself with the office facilities at his disposal here to be fully familiar with the life he expects to lead for the next three months.

The executive offices were in readiness today for President Coolidge to take up, on his second day in Wisconsin, his usual office routine. Under the supervision of Edward E. Clark, Mr. Coolidge's private secretary, and of Rudolph Forster, White House executive clerk, the offices provided in the Superior high school were fitted out with the files and documents brought from Washington.

The actual residence of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge at Cedar Island lodge had, according to reports, fully realized the expectations which had prompted the choice of the summer white house. In addition to being charmed with the unique location of the lodge, its presidential occupants were delighted with the cool temperature they found here in vivid contrast with the heat under which they left the capital.

Survey Surroundings.

Under the bright sun which shone all yesterday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge had the opportunity to survey the surroundings of the lodge at their best. The play of shadow and light and the reflections in the quiet stream which encircles the little island, aroused the appreciation of Mrs. Coolidge.

Mr. Coolidge took advantage of the fair afternoon to practice his hand at casting his fishing line frm the little foot bridge that connects the mainland to the little island on which the lodge is, and later from Lake Nebagamon, six mies away. No word came from the summer white house as to whether in the short time that Mr. Coolidge was there he caught any fish.

The first batch of executive air mail, carried by the specially created airplane service to serve the summer white house, reached here today. In addition to this, communications were opened with Washington on the special telephone and telegraph lines installed for the convenience of Mr. Coolidge.

CAPTURE FOUR IN YUTAN CASE

Omaha Men Charged With Two Robberies Tuesday Night.

Yutan Boys Aid In Tracing the Four Suspects.

OMAHA, Neb., June 16—(AP)—Four Omaha men, sought in connection with the robbery of a store and oil filling station at Yutan Tuesday night, were captured after a chase last night during which officers fired a fusillade of shots.

The men gave their names as Al Gard, Elmer Watson, Earl Farnam and Raymond Goodner. They broke from Gard's house as the authorities entered the yard.

About a third of the Yutan plunder was found in Gard's house, Sheriff Mengel said today.

Boys Take Number.

(Special to The Star.)

YUTAN, June 16—As a result of two Yutan boys taking down the license number of a "strange" car four men were arrested at Omaha Friday evening as suspects in the robbery of the Phillips' general merchandise store and Deerson oil station here Tuesday evening.

Between $700 and $800 worth of merchandise and $55 in cash were secured in the store breakin, but only a flashlight, a gum machine and a few pennies were taken from the filling station.

The license number was traced to an Omaha rent-a-car company, whose records showed that the car had been rented to Albert Gard from 10 o'clock Tuesday evening to 2:30 the next morning. The car had been driven 62 miles.

Sheriff Mengel of Saunders county and Deputy Steffan of Saunders county and four Douglas county officers raided the home where Gard lived. Twenty shots were fired to prevent the escape of the quartet, who gave the names of Albert Gard, Elmer Watson, Earl Farnam and Raymond Goodner.

A HOOVER LEAGUE TO BE ORGANIZED

OMAHA, Neb., June 16—(AP)—The Coolidge league of Nebraska will be re-organized and renamed the Hoover League, according to an announcement by Ross L. Shotwell, Omaha attorney and organizer of the league in this state.

The purpose of the league is to consolidate and unify all republican clubs within the state and to bring them into one central organization, said Mr. Shotwell.

The league will co-operate with the state and national committee in the campaign.

FINAL COUNCIL FIRE AT CRETE

Two New Groups Are Formed Before Camp Is Ended.

(Special to The Star.)

CRETE, Neb., June 16—A ceremony of unusual beauty and inspiration was the final council fire, Thursday evening at Camp Crete. The girls entered into it with spirit, and went away from it with minds filled with the spirit of service that they are taking home with them.

The bugle on the far hill called the girls together for the council fire, and they marched in silently to the sound of the distant tom-tom and formed their circle. They were called to order and saluted the flag before the ceremony began. Ermanelle Waldo of Lincoln, gave the "Dance of the Flame" to the accompaniment of Harriet Teal's violin. The three fires were lighted by three of the councillors—Frances Karl, of Hastings, the Fire of Work; Mrs. Rex Finley of Nebraska City, the Fire of Health; Zoe Nicholas, of Nebraska City, the Fire of Love.

The "Ode to the Fire" was given by Margaret Troyer of Harlan, Iowa, and Josephine Orr of Lincoln recited the Camp Fire Credo. Next, ranks were presented by Mrs. Troyer, of Harlan, Iowa, to many Woodgatherers, fire makers, and torch bearers.

Two new groups were taken into the magic circle of the Camp Crete camp fire and are going to keep up their group at home throughout the winter. The first group, from Beatrice, chose as guardian Mrs. Wager and as her substitute Mary Ellen Fisher. The following girls are members of the group: Helen Brown, Virginia Vasey, Frances Dann, Virginia Beckwith, Marianne Clarke, Jerry Ransdel, Maxine Graf, and Dorothy Prwen. Louise Thornton of Western formed the second group of the following seven girls: Ruth Drake, Dorothy Carson, Hazel Stamp, Helen Staddix, Pauline Sawyer, Leone Winters, and Vera White.

The girls sang two of the camp fire songs, "Mammy Moon" and "Lay Me to Sleep in the Sheltered Flame," before they broke up the circle. Then they trailed off single file through the woods in rythm with the beat of the distant tom-tom.

HOOVER'S HOME TOWN RESPONDS

West Branch, Ia., Has a Mammoth Celebration.

WEST BRANCH, Ia., June 16—(AP)—The Quaker village in which Herbert Hoover spent the first ten years of his life today accepted the intrusion of public interest into the quiet routine that was broken by the Kansas City convention.

Celebrating Mr. Hoover's nomination for the presidency in the town of his birth, four thousand persons gathered here last night for a program of festivities. Today West Branch had returned to its quiet round of events, but pride in the attainments of its most famous son has made shrines of the places intimately connected with his boyhood.

Friends of the nominee recalled again today the stories of his boyhood, while visitors were welcomed at the house in which Hoover was born, the swimming hole by which he played and the unostentatious graves of his father and mother.

Men who were Hoover's boyhood chums and who had witnessed his rise to honor and fame through the engineering profession and public life last night expressed their pride in his attainments and their conviction that he is the logical man for the presidency.

The celebration was held next to the West Branch "Friends meeting house," whose records tell of the birth of a son, Herbert, to Jesse and Hulda Hoover on August 11, 1874. After a concert by the local band and the Tipton American Legion drum corps, Mayor N. H. Olsen introduced Dr. Lewis J. Leech, veteran physician who for 82 years has served the people of West Branch.

Dr. Leech, who knew both the parents and the grandparents of the republican nominee, told of Hoover's normal boyhood and the character of his forebears.

ABOUT PEOPLE

HIGH ANSWERS WET ASSAULTS

Dry Leader is Speaker At Convention Of Christian Church.

Christianity Must Be Laymen's Movement. Says Goldner.

Prohibition, the ministers' pension and the role of the laymen were the principal subjects of addresses at the state convention of the Christian churches at Bethany park Saturday morning.

Rev. P. A. High, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, answered attacks on the eighteenth amendment. He said it should not be modified for three reasons: first, since it was a part of the constitution; second, because rum is the enemy of the home; and third, since Christian men and women prayed openly for their success, while the wet forces dared not ask for divine help.

F. E. Smith of Indianapolis, speaking on the pension, said it no longer had to be decided that a stable form of compensation should be given the ministers, but that the question was what form it should be in.

The present status of pastors who have arrived a the pension age was deplored by the speaker. Invariably, he said the funds fall short of the expenses in spite of the most stringent economy. Most of the ministers decline to take recompense in an undignified way and rather suffer until their friends realize the situation, Mr. Smith declared.

Rev. J. H. Goldner of Cleveland, in the main address, said that Christianity was originally a laypriests' movement, and wouldn't become a conquering force again until it was once more a laymen's movement.

"Jesus, the founder, was neither a professional nor a conventional clergyman," Rev. Goldner said. "The men whom He chose for His disciples were essentially laymen. For its first two centuries Christianity was a laymen's movement.

"As a laymen's movement Christianity conquered and Christianized the Roman empire, but when it became a priestly movement the dark ages began."

Rev. Mr. Goldner will deliver his last two sermons here Sunday, making the address at both the morning and evening services.

Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Young People's society of the Bethany Christian church will hold a banquet. There was no meeting at the tabernacle in the afternoon.

Education was the theme of the Friday night session. Rev. W. D. Endres of Indianapolis, member of the national board of education, Disciples of Christ, discussed the work done by tax supported and denominationals schools and colleges to emphasize the religious phase.

"Black Eagle" Plans Flight to Europe

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., June 16—(AP)—Hubert Julian, a 29-year-old negro parachute jumper and flier, who calls himself the "Black Eagle," announced today that he would attempt a non-stop flight to Paris or Rome during the last two weeks of July.

Julian attempted to make a flight to Liberia, July 4, 1924. He used a flying boat named "Ethipoia," but could not raise it from the water.

City Briefs

New Prospecting Concern—Organic articles have been filed at the capitol by the Lincoln Mining, Milling and Development Corp. of this city, for the announced purposes of buying and leasing real estate, boring and prospecting for oil and minerals, and producing anything of that kind which may be uncovered. Samuel Steinbrecher, J. W. Myers, Albert A. Meier and W. L. Bell are the interested persons. The articles permit capital stock to be issued not exceeding $25,000 in amount.

TRAFFIC CASES

Speeding—Fred Cipsby $40 and costs; Joseph Snyder $18 and costs; Miss L. Trester, $14 and costs; H. A. Larsen, Mrs. C. E. Protzman, $10 and costs; Earl Wixson, probation for 90 days.

Violation of arterial stop—Rose J. Harrison, $1 and costs.

Citizens of Evanston Must Observe Bathing Beach "Royal Edicts"

EVANSTON, Ill., June 16—(A. P.)—Evanston, where the dawn comes up like thunder out of Benton Harbor across the lake, will do its swimming this season under the regulatory eye of the bureau of recreation.

The bureau today gave out the terms under which Evanstonians may enjoy—if that is the word—their six public beaches.

Bathing suits must descend to within at least seven inches of the feminine knee. Bathers under no circumstances must rollerskate on the beach sidewalks, even if they happen to know how to roller skate.

Then there is a new regulation that citizens must not cough while at the beaches. This will be enforced, says the bureau, whether the cough happens to be what the dictionary speaks of as a "sudden noisy and violent expulsion of air from the chest," or one of those hacking things ascribed to smoking the wrong brand of cigarets.

The order for the cough stop was unexplained.

Customs Men Holding Baggage Mary Pickford

NEW YARK, June 16—(AP)—Custom officials ordered held for further examination twelve trunks full of gowns and other clothing belonging to Mary Pickford, screen star, who arrived with her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, today aboard the Italian liner Roma.

Miss Pickford said that the low figures in her declaration were due to the fact that she had received special prices from Italian merchants. The customs officials, however, ruled that if the prices were greatly lower than the same articles would have cost in the United States the actress would be called upon to pay more duty.

The famous pair landed thirty-two pieces of baggage and had to wait on the pier more than an hour while agents made a preliminary examination.

Twelve wardrobe trunks, containing the goods in question, were hauled from the pier to appraisers' stores where it is expected three days will be required to check the prices.

Miss Pickford in a declaration written in Italian estimated the value of her importations between $6,000 and $7,000, customs officials said. Duty on the articles included in the baggage ranges from 30 to 80 per cent of their value.

AMERICA MAY HAVE QUAKER PRESIDENT

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, if elected, will be the nation's first Quaker president.

The republican presidential candidate is a member of the Quaker or Friends church, and in Washington attends services with his wife in the Friends meeting house. Mrs. Hoover prior to her marriage was a member of the Episcopalian church.

The Oregon yearly meeting of the Friends church yesterday sent Mr. Hoover a telegram of congratulation. At the recent joint annual meeting here of the Orthodox and Hicksite branches of the Friends, members expressed pride that one of their number was apt to become a presidential nominee.

FLIERS WAITING GOOD WEATHER

Miss Earhart and Mable Boll Warned Against Starting Flights.

TREPASSEY, N. F., June 16—(AP)—A delay of several days in the departure of the monoplane Friendship for Europe appeared probable today in the light of reports of unfavorable weather at sea.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 16—(AP)—The two American air expeditions quartered in Newfoundland anxiously scanned weather reports today in the hope that conditions would warrant a takeoff for Europe before night.

They had little but hopes upon which to go, however. Dr. James H. Kimball, United States weather bureau meteorologist at New York, had warned both Miss Amelia Earhart and Miss Mabel Boll, who are heading the two flights, that unfavorable conditions in mid-Atlantic might continue for several days.

Miss Earhart, her pilot, Wilmer Stultz and navigator, Lou Gordon, have definitely decided to head their big plane, the Friendship, for Ireland when they take off from Trepassey, where they are waiting favorable weather.

Although the seventy-five gallons of gasoline they must add to insure a fuel supply sufficient to carry them that far will increase the weight of their plane by 500 pounds they believe they will be able to get off the water. When repeated efforts to take off with a full load failed they dumped 200 gallons and announced they would fly by way of the Azores. They did not indicate what brought the change in their plans. Stultz set this afternoon as a tentative starting time.

Miss Mabel Boll, who is at Harbor Grace with her two pilots, Oliver Le Boutillier and Arthur Argles, waiting to start the trans-Atlantic plane Columbia again across the Atlantic, was undecided as to when they would start their flight.

Weather conditions at both Harbor Grace and Trepassey were unfavorable. A dense fog prevailed at Harbor Grace and rain was forecast.

FLYING CLOUD LEADS INDIANS

Karook Brave 18 Miles Ahead In Redwood Marathon.

WILLITS, Cal., June 16—(I. N. S.)—Flying Cloud, Karook brave was fifteen miles north of here at 10:30 o'clock this morning, eighteen miles in the lead of other contestants in the $10,000 Redwood Indian marathon.

After a four hour rest here last night, the Karook, who finished second in the 482 mile race last year, was away from here at six o'clock this morning, running strong.

The chief threat against Flying Cloud's lead was being made by Melika, 62 year old Zuni Indian, who is running in third place only half a mile behind Red Robin, Navajo tribesman.

Melika had a good rest last night and set out today to cut down the lead of the youthful Flying Cloud.

Mad Bull, winner of last year's endurance jaunt, although far in the rear of the leader, was holding the spotlight today.

Duncan Wants All Railway Crossings Of Armored Type

C. R. Wilke, deputy city attorney, Saturday was drafting for Commissioneer Duncan a resolution defining the type of crossing that must be built hereafter by railroads. They must be the armored type, the resolution will say. The Burlington is now using this type and the Rock Island superintendent, here from Fairbury one day this week consented to use it also, and will start within a few days making the change.

The resolution will not require changing to the new crossing where the materials now in use are in good condition. It affects future construction only.

To build an armored crossing the space between the track is filled with discarded rails, the open spaces being filled with crushed rock.

League Headquarters To Have Radio Station

GENEVA, June 16—(I.N.S.)—The league of nations may have its own radio station. The council and assembly will consider plans next September.

It is estimated that it would cost approximately $250,000 and require an annual sum of $40,000 to operate; 1,200,000 words would be distributed annually from this station.

RUPTURE

SHIELD EXPERT HERE

E. J. Meinhardt, of Chicago, the well-known expert, will personally be at the Lincoln Hotel, Lincoln, Neb., on Tuesday only, June 19th, from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

Mr. Meinhardt says:

"The Meinhardt Vacuum Shield" will not only retain the Rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case—usually giving instantaneous relief withstanding all strain, regardless of the size or location of the Rupture.

BOURNE APPEALS SECOND VERDICT

Twice Sentenced For Part in Murder of Westervelt.

For the second time, R. W. Bourne has appealed to the Supreme court from a conviction in the District court of Dawes county on a charge of second degree murder in connection with the death of Ferris Westervelt.

The first conviction, which resulted in a sentence of thirty years in the penitentiary, was reversed by the Supreem court. The second trial recently resulted in another conviction on the same charge and a sentence of twenty-seven years.

The death of young Westervelt occurred on October 8, 1925. He and Bourne had been out together on business during the day. That evening upon their return, Bourne wakened Westervelt's parents to tell them that their son had been shot by accident when he was getting out of the automobile in front of their home. The theory upon which the state based its prosecution of Bourne was that he had shot Westervelt in order to obtain his life insurance.

One of the errors cited in the appeal from the second conviction is that the trial court again permitted the introduction of evidence as to this insurance policy. The court, however, in its instructions explained that that evidence was merely for the purpose of permitting the jury to determine whether thre was a motiv for th shooting. The court's instructions pointed out that the evidence was undisputed that Bourne could not have collected any insurance, but that it was up to the jury to decide whether or not Bourne thought he could.

Republicans Leave; Enter 'White Wings'

KANSAS CITY, June 16—(AP)—The republican convention is over for everybody but the street sweepers.

The delegates, who for four days tried with varying success to find their seats in convention hall, are on their way home after nominating Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis for president and vice president. The Kansas senator was nominated on the first ballot at the brief final sesion yesterday afternoon. The vote was 1052 to 36. This was later made unanimous as a roaring welcome went up for the majority senate floor leader.

Kansas City, to which conventions are no novelty, is returning rapidly to its usual everyday tasks and watching the street cleaners sweep up the few evidences left of the great political gathering. The shouting is ended, but the arm bands, hat bands, and brass bands, candidates' photographs and recommendations linger until the white wings can do something about it. Plain and fancy sweeping is going on apace and night fall will find the convention city quite itself again.

Before the first homegoing delegates were on their way the huge convention hall changed its dress. Out came the G. O. P. emblems, the elaborate decorations and the stands in which the 54 standards of the states, territories and District of Columbia rested when they were not being lugged about the track by frenzied delegates cheering a candidate. When the Baptist convention meets next month in convention hall there will be nothing to indicate that candidates for president and vice president were named on two ballots in this spacious meeting place.

HOOVER AND CURTIS.

The shadow of Calvin Coolidge hovered over the republican national convention in its selection of candidates for the presidency and the vice presidency of the United States.

Herbert Hoover, the party's nominee for president, has been a trusted and valued member of the Coolidge cabinet, and before that was one of the "best minds" selected by the late Warren Harding. Senator Curtis of Kansas, was the administration's floor leader in the senate, and enjoyed the full confidence and friendship of the president.

It is a logical ticket—more so than the combination which offered Coolidge and Dawes. It represents a triumph for the Coolidge-Mellon-Hoover bloc of the republican party of conclusive and impressive proportions. It is a complete and sweeping victory for the east over the embattled west in the face of the fact that Mr. Hoover's home gazes out upon the broad Pacific, and Curtis hails from Kansas. Geography furnishes no answer when the public seeks the political outlook of these two men, who will bear the standard of the republican party in the approaching campaign. Mr. Hoover is as thoroughly imbued with the political philosophy of the eastern industrial interests as Calvin Coolidge. Senator Curtis is a conservative.

The liberal, progressive wing of the republican party, represented very largely in the Central West and the West, has been reduced to impotency. It was smashed on every turn. It was hopelessly outshouted and outvoted on every occasion, while the triumphant forces of Coolidge, Mellon and Hoover smiled tolerantly at the futile efforts of those forces which had been a dynamic factor under the leadership of Roosevelt and La Follette.

In his new role before the country today, Herbert Hoover's abilities are recognized. He has been a worker. His career is filled with great accomplishments in the fields of engineering and business. In his early years his entire attention was taken with mining conquests. Slightly more than ten years ago he became interested in public life, and his rise since then has been meteoric. As a comparatively young man, with an international standing, he becomes the candidate of a great political party for the highest office within the gift of the American people. That is one picture of Herbert Hoover.

There is another.

He has been a member of the president's family since 1920. He sat at the council table, day after day, while a corrupt official was gambling with this nation's oil reserves, and apparently was innocent of any knowledge of what was going on. He heard Washington sizzle with the ugly stories which were going round for months before the senate forced a reluctant administration, to act and he never batted an eye, or raised a hand in protest. He has never publicly expressed shae or humiliation over the wholesale corruption, which characterized an administration in which he was a leading figure. To all intents and purposes he has been one of the gang, which remained silent, or half-heartedly sought to detract attention from the foul mess. That is not the Hoover of engineering fame. It is not the Hoover whose spirit of humanitarianism was touched by the plight of Belgium. It is the Hoover who has made himself all-powerful in the councils of the gang, controlling the destinies of the republican party. It is the politician who is today seeking office, and who permitted a party platform to be written, which again attempts to confuse and mislead the public mind in regard to the most sordid story of corruption staining the pages of American history.

Politician! Yes, and then some. Those people who expected a new chapter to be written in the history of the republican party in America may just as well face the fact. With Herbert Hoover, just as it has been with Calvin Coolidge, the question of party expediency, overweighs sincerity and frankness and straight and honest thinking. The Mellons and the Vares have had their triumph. We shall shortly expect that Vare, the Philadelphia boss, who was rejected by his own party in the United States senate, will be restored to good standing.

RACIAL PROTECTION AGAINST ASIA.

Loosening up of the immigration laws so as to let in a limited number of persons belonging to the races of Asia, who are now totally barred and ineligible to become citizens of the United States, is the advice given by many returned missionaries from the orient, when they revisit this country. Their favorite argument is that the people subject to exclusion under present laws feel themselves to be victims of discrimination and are resentful toward America for what they regard as an imputation of inferiority.

The complaint is heard that because of the prevailing restrictions against admitting members of these races the work of missionaries among them is made more difficult. This is probably true in some degree. But the governmental policies of the United States cannot be framed primarily to please the inhabitants of other nations; least of all those who seek the privilege of coming into this country and displacing its own citizens in many lines of employment and business. The welfare of the American people at home must have first consideration.

At first, objections were urged against the exclusion policy with particular reference to the Japanese. Dire predictions were voiced that it would make the island empire bitterly hostile to the American republic and perhaps lead to war. At the very least, said the critics from abroad, this country's trade would be hurt and friendly relations with Japan made impossible.

None of these prophecies has been realized. Although the Johnson act still stands, Nippon and Columbia manage to get along very well together; the volume of products exchanged between them is growing year by year; each seems to have the good will of the other; and nothing that resembles a war cloud can be discerned in that direction.

Just now we are being told that the Hindoos and other south Asiatics do not like our immigration law, and that we ought to change it in order to please them. It will be time enough to think about this when the caste system of India is abolished and the people of that country placed upon social and political equality with each other. Certainly, no obligation rests upon the United States to throw open its doors for the entrance of uneducated paupers from there or anywhere else.

It might as well be understood at the outset that the immigration policy of the United States, which includes restrictions against European countries, is permanent. Recognizing it as such, the Italian government is discouraging emigration of its nationals to this country. Other nations are adjusting themselves to it without showing any sign of rancor. The question is admitted by them to be an internal one which the American people are entitled to settle for themselves and in their own way.

Exclusion, in fact, is not a new policy. It was first applied to the Chinese more than 40 years ago, at a time when this country was threatened with a flood of coolie laborers. It was not invoked as against the Japanese and Hindoos until their poorer classes likewise began coming into the United States at an alarming rate, colonizing large areas on the Pacific coast and overflowing into the interior states.

Australia and Canada have been compelled to erect the same barriers as the United States, in order to prevent an influx of Mongolian and Hindoo labor which would eventually overwhelm the white population, as has already occurred in the Hawaiian islands.

American expatriates in Asia ought to cease their fault-finding with the immigration laws, and get into tune with the country which they still claim as their own, under whose prestige and protection they are carrying on their work.

RHEIMS CELEBRATES RISE FROM RUINS.

America had more than a historical interest in the celebration which the French city of Rheims staged a week ago today. Eloquent has been the history of that city, appealing as it did to the sympathetic impulses of the American people, the new Rheims, rising upon the ruins of the old, shell-torn community, is even more significant in the eyes of the people of the United States for capital furnished by this country played a most important part in its restoration.

It was John D. Rockefeller, jr., who supplied the funds for rebuilding the Rheims Cathedral, one of the outstanding buildings of Europe in architectual beauty. It was the Carnegie Foundation which furnished the money to construct a new city hall. The American Memorial hospital, filled with the priceless manuscripts and books which were saved from the ruins of the Rheims library when that building was destroyed by fire and German shell in 1917, supplies another reminder of the part which the United States played.

The restoration of Rheims represents one of the outstanding achievements of the French people in repairing the ravages of war. During the four years of bombardment and fire, 15,000 houses were destroyed. Approximately 11,000 of them have been rebuilt. More than 2,000 new houses have been built on new sites and 1,000 homes are now under construction. Before the close of the year the scars of war will have been completely effaced, and Rheims will be much as she was before the German hordes descended upon her. Her population today is 108,000 people as contrasted with 115,000 on the eve of the war.

Whatever bitterness may fill the hearts of the French people in connection with the American debt should be counterbalanced in appreciation of the generosity of distinguished Americans in the work of rehabilitation. Rockefeller and the Carnegie Foundation made it possible for Rheims to resume her old appearance much sooner than she otherwise would. The Frenchman, known throughout the world for his love for beauty, found it impossible to restore the Rheims cathedral in the face of the more pressing demands made upon the national treasury. It was only when John D. Rockefeller, jr., opened his purse strings that the French were enabled to push the work of rebuilding the Rheims cathedral.

DR. S. PARKES CADMAN

(Copyright, 1928, New York Tribune.)

Questions from Lincoln Star readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

How do you justify your teaching about a benevolent deity who would nevertheless, permit human sacrifices?

This is exactly what the Jehovah of those primitive ages did not countenance. He prevented Abraham from slaying Isaac, and the sacrifice of Jephtha's daughter was offensive to Him. When the light of the true knowledge of God dispersed the dark and cruel shadows of superstition human sacrifices became impossible They were and are the distinctive mark of debased heathenism. The typical Old Testament doctrine on this issue is stated by the prophet Micah. Read for yourself his noble utterance in the sixth chapter of his book, verses six to eight.

What is the meaning of child labor day? Are not the children of the United States sufficiently protected by their parents and teachers and by the community at large? It seems to me that we may be on the wrong side of this question. Many children I know need more responsibility and less privilege if they are to meet the demands of life.

Child labor day was established twenty-one years ago. If you have any doubts of its necessity write to the national child labor committee at 21 Fourth avenue, New York City for reports upon conditions in 1906 as compared with those existing now.

You will be convinced. I think, that vast improvements have been made, and also that there is still ample room for further improvements. Child labor has been defined as the working of children under conditions that interfere with the physical development, education and opportunities for recreation which children require.

Its abolition involves the prohibition of gainful employment for children under sixteen. The establishment of an eight-hour day and the forbiddance of night work for children of the latter age are part of the constructive program of this committee. It purposes educational advantages for the rising generation especially those who are unprivileged and so need to be lifted to a level of selfsustaining efficiency in the future.

In fourteen states children under fourteen may still be legally employed in factories, at least out of school hours. In eleven states they are permitted to work nine to eleven hours a day. In seventeen states a physician's certificate is not required before a child starts work. In nineteen states not even a sixth grade education is required. In twenty-eight states children of fourteen can work around explosives; in twenty-two they may run elevators; in seventeen they may oil and clean machinery in motion.

As I set down these facts connected with child labor in this prosperous land I recall that since the World war Germany has begun to develop scientifically her childhood and youth upon an unparalleled scale of physical competence. This policy is practiced by a nation deprived of rich territories and heavily burdened with debt. Germany is too intelligent to allow any encumbrances to interfere with the protection of her seed corn. What of the United States?

What is the real underlying doctrine of purgatory as taught by the Roman Catholic church? Do they teach that when all sins are burned and purged away the soul passes into heaven?

The Catholic church teaches that a soul passes from bodily existence either innocent, imperfect or wicked. The innocent enter heaven at once. The imperfect are detained in purgatory until they have discharged their debt to Divine justice. The wicked are lost. "Their end is destruction" (Philippians iii, 19).

In the intermediate state of purgatory, or the place of purification, the imperfect are deprived of that vision of God which Dante triumphantly celebrates as the consummation of a created spirit's bliss. But they are sustained by the knowledge that its glory shall ultimately be theirs. The happiness this knowledge inspires enables them to bear with patience and hope the painful readjustments essential to their soul's cleansing.

It is further taught that the living can help the dead thus conditioned. The communion of saints includes them; its consolation and strength are regarded as available for the departed who have not passed of their own will into outer darkness. How long they have to wait for release Catholic authorities do not profess to know. But they remind us that St. Augustine prayed for his sainted mother for thirty years after her death.

Certainly from their viewpoint nothing defiled or defiling can enter the paradise of the blessed (Revelation xxii, 14-15). This teaching is the basis of the doctrine under discussion. It requires in its adherents complete repentance and restitution as necessary antecedents of perfect life. Those who achieve these are admitted to the full benefits of God's redemption in Christ. I trust I have made the matter clear to you, and to numerous other correspondents who have asked this question.

LOVE PROOF

By Robert Terry Shannon.

(Copyright, 1928, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Chapter Four.

Suddenly, she found herself quivering internally, with indignation, not fear.

"Mr. Kirk!" Her voice was like a whip-lash, and Steve, who had been facing Harvey Reynolds, turned. "My father doesn't have to reply to any such demands. You—you and your father—seem to assume he is a thief! You simply override a whole lifetime of honesty with your low suspicions. Will you please leave at once and tell your father—for us—that we have no idea whatever of being bullied or intimidated by any threats."

Harvey Reynolds appeared numb, hollow, as though all energy had fled his mind. Steve Kirk's attention, as though drawn by an electric magnet, turned to Nadia.

"I'm sorry that is your attitude, Miss Reynolds," he stated quietly. "You are not helping your father at all."

Nadia made an effort to control herself. "Will you please go?" she demanded, icily.

"Certainly." He again faced her father. "Coming, Mr. Reynolds?"

"Sorry . . ." The older man's voice was empty. "Afraid there is nothing I can do."

Young Kirk's face, for an instant, was fleetingly regretful. Then, very quickly, it was strong and impassive.

"Very well." He addressed Nadia directly. "Some day," he said, "you will think better of me—and my father. I am very sorry for you."

He said it awkwardly and he turned abruptly and left the house. Harvey Reynolds' eyes followed him with a curious, trance-like stare.

"Odd . . ." he muttered.

Nadia's eyes were burning. "I hate him! Hate him!"

Her father's thoughts seemed curiously transferred from the realm of reality; the blow had fallen upon him with such crushing force that he had, almost, the vacancy of a somnambulist.

"Odd," he repeated musingly. "You hate him and he loves you. Yes, that's the way it is . . . odd."

"Have you lost your mind?" Nadia demanded hotly.

Her intensity penetrated to him, seemed to draw him out of a fog. "I'm all upset," he said wanly. What I need is a drink.

"What you need is a darn good lawyer—the best one we can get," she corrected him. "I can see where we're in for a rough party."

"Competent attorneys cost a lot of money—and I don't know what good they could do me."

"Never mind that. How about Judge Kendall? Can we get him?"

"He'd want several thousand dollars for a fee—"

"We'll pay it!"

Harvey Reynolds shook his head. "I'm afraid we haven't got it."

"But we can raise it. We can borrow, or we can sell—"

"The truth is," her father said, feeling for his words, "that we're up against it, Nadia. We're cornered. Driven to cover. The fact that I'm absolutely innocent seems not to affect the situation at all. I can't even run away. I'd be caught—besides flight would be an admission of guilt."

But the common sense that was in the girl would not down.

"This is all perefectly ridiculous," she declared. "If you're innocent—and you are—you can't be proved guilty. It's only that way in plays. Why, common sense should show us—"

Again her father shook his head, hopelessly.

"All I know is that I feel myself trapped, enmeshed by circumstance. I'm wondering what will become of you. I've lived my life and I really don't matter. It's you, Nadia darling—"

The good thing to do, she told him briskly, was for both of them to snap out of it. A good lawyer, she declared, would speedily set them right. "Why if they tried to arrest you, you could sue that old bank for damages for every cent they own!"

She was not at home when the police came, because she had left her father and gone in her roadster to the home of Judge Kendall, the best lawyer in town, a gray-haired attorney with a bland innocent face and the mind of a fox.

Briefly, hurriedly she told her tale. Judge Kendall listened, as he sat beside her on his front porch, with a careful sympathetic interest.

"And you say your father has lost all of his money—besides facing the shortage at the bank?"

"Yes, but we can probably salvage something above the mortgage—"

Judge Kendall lifted a plump pinkish hand.

"Nadia—" he knew her well enough for that—"I'm not concerned about the money. I'm not sure this is a case for a lawyer at all. I want to be kind—but have you considered the possibility that your father is, after all, not exactly guilty—but, let us say, involved?"

"I have not!" she said decisively. "Good girl! But guilty does not always mean a man is dishonest. Circumstances lead many good men into deep waters—to a point where there is scarcely a distinguishable difference between, well, manipulation and technical defaulting. Your father is a charming gentleman and I've always liked him. Everyone did. But it is well to face facts coldly."

"Are you trying to convince me that he is a thief?"

Judge Kendall pursed his lips. "I'm trying to convince you, Nadia, that you've gone to see the wrong man. I can't help you. Just from what you've told me I'm willing to gamble that your father's fate is in the hands of one man. Old man Kirk. Go see him. If you can win him over he's smart enough to find a way out of anything. He holds every last trump card. Now, that's as good advice as I could give you if you paid me ten thousand dollars—and I'm giving it to you free."

When she got home her father was gone.

The Worst Story I Have Heard Today

By Will Rogers.

There was a guy on trial for murder, and he didn't take any interest in the case at all. He wouldn't even hire a lawyer, but the law in that state wouldn't let the poor guy be convicted so easy, so the court named a young lawyer for him.

The lawyer couldn't get any satisfaction out of the client.

"I killed him," says the bloke. "So of course I got to get hanged, ain't I? That's all there is to it."

The young lawyer come into court and had himself sworn as the only witness.

"This client is crazy," he tells the court. "We won't need no doctors to prove it. He says he killed the other fellow and wants to plead guilty and he reckons a man has to hang for murder. And besides that, he refuses to plead insanity! That's all of our case, your honor. I think I've proved he's crazy."

And the jury got right up and stopped the trial. "Not guilty, but crazy!" says the jury.

BIDS RECEIVED ON PAVING DISTRICT IN ANTELOPE PARK

Bids on a paving district in Antelope park, and for grading Lenox addition between Fortieth and Forty-fourth streets and O and L streets, were opened Saturday by the city engineer, and Commissioner Duncan. The paving is to be from Garfield street north to that part of the park drive which was paved last summer.

The Abel Construction Co. bid $4,706.85 and the Cochrane Construction Co. $4,679.85. The engineer's estimate was $4,700. Commissioner Schroeder announced this morning that his department will pay $4,200 of the cost, under an agreement with the park department to pay half of the cost of the two projects. The water and light department did not pay its half last summer because of a misunderstanding, so Mr. Schroeder is making up the difference on this contract.

On the grading district J. W. McGerr was the low bidder at $3,708. The Abel Construction Co. bid was $3,749.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Old Mr. Toad Is Envious

By Thornton W. Burgess.

Envy is foolish; envy is vain,
It leads in the end to but sorrow and pain.
—Old Mother Nature.

Stickytoes the Tree Toad—who really isn't a toad at all, but a frog—was clinging to the side of an old stump, an old gray stump, looking down at his cousin, Old Mr. Toad, who had been very busy catching ants from an anthill that Cubby Bear had dug open. Stickytoes clug to the side of that old stump without the least inconvenience. Of course Old Mr. Toad was his cousin, but Old Mr. Toad could not have clung to the side of that stump to save his life. He was thinking of this as he looked up at his small cousin.

"I don't understand how you do it," said Old Mr. Toad.

Stickytoes suddenly let go and he dropped right down beside Old Mr. Toad. "It is very simple, cousin," said he. Just look at my toes. I wonder that you have never noticed my toes before."

"Because they are worth noticing" replied Stickytoes. "Look at them now. They are not in the least like yours, are they?"

Old Mr. Toad looked. "No-o," said he, slowly, "they are not in the least like mine. If you ask me, they certainly are queer-looking toes."

Stickytoes held one hand up. They may be queer-looking," said he, "but they certainly are just the thing I need. You will notice that the end of each toe is round and flat. What is more, it is sticky. Watch me now" Stickytoes gave a long leap and he landed on the side of a tree. All four feet were spread out and he stuck right where he landed. Yes, sir, he stuck right where he landed. Then he made a flying leap across to a branch. It was a small branch and he almost missed it, but he caught it with his two hands and pulled himself up. Then he looked down at Old Mr. Toad.

"There you are, cousin!" said he. "It is all on account of these toes of mine. If I didn't have these sticky toes, I shouldn't be able to live in trees."

"Huh!" grunted Old Mr. Toad. "What is the idea of living in trees anyway?"

"Oh," replied Stickytoes, "one is so much safer there. Give me a tree every time for safety. There is always plenty to eat in a tree and with this handy coat of mine I can keep out of sight. Take this coat and the leaves together and it requires mighty sharp eyes to see me."

"What do you mean by your very 'handy coat?'" demanded Old Mr. Toad.

"Why," replied Stickytoes, "my coat of many colors."

"Huh!" exclaimed Old Mr. Toad, "I don't see that it is a coat of many colors. It is all one color—the color of that old stump."

"I don't understand how you can do it," said Old Man Toad.

"Wait a bit, wait a bit!" replied Stickytoes. "Give me a little time. I don't need much, but I do need a little. You can catch a few ants and then look at me."

This reminded Old Mr. Toad that he had been neglecting those ants. So, far a minute or two, he was very busy once more. Then he looked up to where he had last seen his cousin Sticktoes the Tree Toad. He did not see anybody. "Where have you gone, Stickytoes?" he called.

The answer was a funny little chuckle. "I haven't gone anywhere," said Stickytoes. "I am right where you last saw me."

Then for the first time Old Mr. Toad noticed what looked like a little brown knot on the brown bark of that branch. It moved. It was Stickytoes the Tree Toad. The color of his coat had changed completely. He was no longer gray, but brown "Oh! exclaimed Old Mr. Toad "How do you do it? Do you change your coat?"

"Change my coat," exclaimed his cousin. I should say not! The coat changes color, that's all, and it does it when I want it to. I can be green if I want to be."

Old Mr. Toad sighed. He sighed two or three times. "It isn't often I envy any one," said he, "but I must confess I envy your, Cousin Stickytoes. I'd like to climb a tree. I'd like to have a changing coat. But as is is, I have to live on the ground and be the homeliest one of the entire family." Old Mr. Toad sighed again. Perhaps if he had known that he was the most useful, as well as the homeliest member of the family, he would no longer have been envious.

Hoover's Poor Boy Story Challenged By English Paper

LONDON, June 16—(AP)—In an editorial on the nomination of Herbert Hoover, the Star challenges Mr. Hoover's statement that "in no other land could a boy from a country village, without inheritance or influential friends look forward with unbounded hope."

The Star declares that England provides similar opportunity and cites former Premiers MacDonald and Lloyd George as examples of poor boys who reached the top. There are thousands of men in England occupy the highest positions who started in poverty and without help, the paper says.

The Belfast News Letter also publishes an editorial in a similar vein.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M. D.

Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children."

Answers to Correspondents.

"In your article on exercise, you warn against massaging the breasts or doing anything for them to reduce them, except general weight reduction, as it may be dangerous. Do you consider cupping them laso dangerous? Could you suggest anything to make them even? My left breast is somewhat smaller and higher than the right.

"For fat in spots, you recommend special exercises and massage. And you mention that hand rollers are good for this purpose. Recently I was informed that hand rollers might cause cancer or other trouble. Do you think there is such a possibility? "MRS. A."

When I warn against massage, or doing anything else for large breasts, except general reduction, "cupping" certainly is included, Mrs. A., for cupping is quite a severe treatment. Massage or cupping might not do harm, but the breasts are more prone to cancer than other parts of the body in women, and if there happened to be some possible cancerous tissue there, stimulation would irritate it, and perhaps dislodge the cells, and they would cause growths elsewhere.

As far as making the breasts even, it would be just as impossible as it would be to make the fingers even. You were born that way, Mrs. A. It is perfectly normal for some to have one breast slightly larger, and perhaps slightly higher, than the other.

No, the hand rollers, unless they were used with such force that they injured the tissues, which no sensible person would do, have only the good effects of any massage, plus the active exercise which you take at the same time. This really does you as much, if not more, good, than the massage!

The article on exercise which Mrs. A. refers to is the one on the Atonic Abdominal Wall. It gives some splendid exercises for the tummy and back. The column rules for obtaining material which we offer in the column are to send (1) a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and (2) 10 cents in coin for the artcile on reducing and gaining, and 2 cents for all other articles, to cover cost of printing and handling.

Hiccough.

Hiccough is usually a very harmless exercise of the diaphragm, with an explosion of a characteristic sound from the vocal cords, which is too well known to require description.

The condition is most often seen after eating too heartily, or hastily, especially of highly-spiced foods, and after alcoholic over-indulgence.

The first aid treatment consists of holding the breath, slowly sipping cold water, or sucking ice. Should the hiccough fail to yield, then heat or cold may be applied over the stomach. If that fails, take hold of the tongue with a napkin, and pull it rhythmically several times; not too hard, of course. This failing, press on the neck on the sides over the muscle that leads from the mastoid bone back of the ear to the breastbone in front. This will press on the phrenic nerve, which leads to the diaphragm, and may have some influence on the diaphragmatic spasm.

France and Germany Forget Old Scores In Student Exchange

PARIS, June 16—(I. N. S.)—That the war is fast being forgotten is shown by the number of French and German students who are planning to exchange their respective homes for the summer holidays.

The committee of international exchanges has already received two hundred and fifty applications from French students, twice the total number of the summer of 1927 and it is expected that before the lists are completed in two months, there will be an entirely new story to tell.

Germans are showing even greater desire to come to France, five hundred of them already show on the lists.

Many of the names of the students never appear in the hands of the committee, for having found favorable conditions, the students continue to write each other and arrange their own exchanges when the vacation time comes.

Marvelous for the Stomach

ZINSEP Compound has produced some amazing results. Druggists as well as sufferers praise ZINSEP. "I never sold a remedy that gave such wonderful results as ZINSEP. Every user proclaims this marvelous stomach remedy as a God-sent relief," writes W. P. Connor, druggist, Wood River, Neb. If you are troubled with ulcers indigestion bloating, bad breath, sick headache, dizziness, nausea, vomiting, heartburn or sour, gassy stomach, get a bottle of ZINSEP at once; don't delay, for it means an end to your misery. Remember, ZINSEP must give you relief. Your druggist will refund your money if it fails to help you.

Sold and guaranteed by Fenton's 3 drug stores, Fitzgerald Drug Co., Chipperfield Drug Co., University Place, Walter A. Baker, Havelock, Neb., and all other good druggists everywhere.—Adv.

GRAIN MARKETS.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 16.

Despite a good rally at one time, wheat prices ranged lower today, largely as a result of auspicious weather in the American and Canadian northwest. Reports of heavy rain in sections of Kansas with a forecast which suggested more had only a temporary market effect. Houses with connections southwest were on the selling side.

Wheat closed unsettled, ⅝c to 1⅜ net lower, corn unchanged to ⅝c up, oats at ⅛c to ½@⅝c advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10c.

News of welcome downpours in Canada and of improved moisture conditions in parts of domestic spring wheat territory were accompanied today by Liverpool quotations lower than due and by grain dealers' estimates that Canadian farmers still have 12,220,000 bushels of wheat to be marketed. There were estimates also that the wheat acreage of the Canadian prairie provinces this season is 9.95 per cent larger than in 1927.

Dispatches today from Calgary, Alberta, by a Chicago crop expert observing spring wheat conditions said that there was plenty of moisture now, but that from Edmonton to Calgary wheat is quite spotted, top growth short and stand thin, but with favorable weather will make an average yield. He added that the type of soil and time of seeding appears to be a determining factor.

New York Cotton.

By International News Service.
NEW YORK, June 16.

COTTON—Various factors for the advance were ignored and cotton declined approximately 75 cents a bale today on reports of more favorable weather in the south. The government boll weevil report also was viewed from a slightly bearish standpoint.

Opening losses of 1 to 2 points were extended toward the close of the short session on scattered liquidation and week end profit-taking. Steady Liverpool cables had little effect marketwise, as also did better dry goods reports and Fall River advices telling of a better inquiry for cloths there. Sales of cloths at Fall River for the week were estimated at 15,000 pieces.

Prices in the second hour were: October, 20.54, down 15; December, 20.35, down 18; May, 20.10, down 14 and July, 20.48, down 14.

CORN—No. 2 white, 86c; No. 2 yellow, 87c.

Weekly Trade Review

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—Dun's today said:

The noteworthy feature this week is the fact that wherever propitious weather has prevailed an appreciable increase in the demand for seasonal commodities has appeared.

Uneveness still characterizes conditions generally in many of the leading industries. Curtailment of operations in iron and steel and by manufacturers of foot wear has become more pronounced. Further liquidation proceeds in unfilled steel orders and output for the entire Pittsburgh district is still estimated at 70 to 75 per cent.

Weekly bank clearings, $11,623,507,000, an increase of 16.3 per cent over last year.

STOCK MARKET.

By International News Service.
NEW YORK, June 16.

Selling pressure on the industrial market leaders was promptly resumed in the short session of the stock market today and prices continued the downward movement which was in progress at Friday's close. This "secondary reaction" following Tuesday's drastic decline was not unexpected, and its effect will be to place a more reasonable and sensible relation between corporation earnings and stock prices.

The week-end business reviews reported plenty of interruptions to the orderly conduct of business this week, including politics, the weather, the money markets and the approach of the summer dull season.

Bradstreet's reported purely commercial dealings restricted to narrow limits for this season of the year, with commodity prices not holding as well as last year.

Radio, Generall Motors and other market favorites were pushed downward without interruption in the first hour as the result of persistent selling pressure. Decline in prices had forced out considerable liquidation of weakly margined accounts, confidence as well as resources of many of the new crop of stock traders having been impaired by the land-slide this week.

Wright Aero lost about 6 points in the first half hour.

Strength of the oil stocks was again exhibited, in the face of persistent selling, and had its basis in the prospect of one or more increases in crude oil prices at the height of the consuming season.

Standard Oil of New York and New Jersey were again under accumulation, and numerous large blocks of stock passed through the market.

Trading slowed down near the end of the first hour, and the tickers were in position to report sales without contractions on the tape.

The week-end commodity markets were slightly reactionary. Wheat sold down more than a cent a bushel at Chicago and other important grain centers; corn and oats receded fractionally; cotton lost about 70c a bale in the local market; crude rubber was quiet and steady.

The selling wave without moderate recessions in prices, in many cases reaching the low levels of the week.

Spirited rallies in the steel, motor, oil and industrial stocks in the final period restored the bulk of the early losses, and the market was firm at the close.

General Motors and Radio, which had been under selling pressure in the first hour, led the final rally, and U. S. Stee spurted to above 139. Wright Aero and other specialties recorded their best prices near the close. Railroad stocks were inactive but firm. Transactions were slightly in excess of 1,100,000 shares.

Further losses were recorded in the active industrial stocks at the opening today. The rails were steady, with Atchison up ⅞ at 188 and New York Central unchanged at 172⅛. Wright Aero was down 2¼ at 141¾, U. S. Steel down 1 at 138, General Electric down 1 at 145½ and General Motors down ⅛ at 177½.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS.

By the Associated Press.
OMAHA, June 16.

CATTLE—Receipts, 100. Too few cattle were here to make a market and prices were quoted nominally steady. Both fat steers and yearlings are closing the week steady to mostly 10 to 25c higher, best yearlings reaching $14.50, top this week. She stock is generally strong to 25c up with calves showing little change, bulls fully 25 cents lower and stockers and feeders steady.

CLOSE—Cattle: Compared with a week ago: fed steers and yearlings, 10c to 25c higher; yearlings at full advance; weighty steers 10c to 15c up; she stock, 25c to 40c higher; cutters, steady; bulls, weak to 25c lower; veals, steady; stockers and feeders, scarce, steady; fed steers and yearlings, $12.50@13.85; weighty steers, $14.15; medium weights, $14.20; yearlings, $14.50; heifers, $12.50@13.50; 697 pound weights, $14.00; bulk beef cows, $8.75@10.25; choice lots, $11.00@11.10; good head, $12.00; bulk all cutters, $6.25@7.50; medium bulls, $8.25@8.75; practical top veals, $13.00; stockers and feeders, $11.25@12.50; few loads up to $13.00.

HOGS—Receipts, 4,500. The market on better grade of butchers ruled fairly active at steady to 10c higher prices, but medium kinds and mixed hogs were dull throughout the day at no more than steady prices. Bulk of sales were $9.25@9.75, top for the day $9.85. Somewhat lighter receipts resulted in a better tone to the trade in good butcher hogs this week and prices on them and packing sows are fully 25c higher than a week ago, but plainer grades of all classes have been slow with sales at uneven levels.

CLOSE—Hogs: Active, strong to 10c higher; top, $9.85, paid for one load choice 230 pound butchers; bulk 180 to 350 pound lights and butchers, $9.50@9.75; 160 to 180 pound lights, $8.75@9.60; packing sows, $8.50@8.75; smooth sows, upward to $8.90; average cost Friday, $9.27; weight, 255.

SHEEP—Receipts, none. Prices were quoted nominally steady on all classes today. Receipts on western lambs continue unusually heavy for this time of the year. During the past six days and together with a demoralized condition in the eastern best markets resulted in further declines of $1.75@2.00. Demand for feeders was narrow and trade on them was slow most of the week with values showing a decline of fully 50 to 75c from last week with some cases possibly off more. Aged sheep are mostly unchanged for the period.

CLOSE—Sheep: Compared with a week ago: lambs and yearlings, $2.00 lower; sheep and feeding lambs, 50 to 75c lower; closing bulks follow: fat range lambs, $15.00@15.25; fed clipped lambs, $13.50@13.65; fed yearlings, $12.25@12.75; fat ewes, $5.00@6.00; top, $6.50; range feeding lambs, $12.25@1260.

tion that will place agriculture on a basis of economic equality with industry. The party must keep this pledge and I have ample confidence it will.

"Honest differences of opinion have prevented a correction of the situation and the application of an appropriate and effective remedy. On two occasions a great majority of the members of the congress have expressed their belief that the solution of the problem lies in the creation of a federal farm board, supplied with sufficient funds and ample powers to aid in the control and disposition of the surpluses of agricultural commodities, and if in so doing a loss occurred it would be absorbed through the application of an equalization fee upon the producers receiving the benefits of the legislation.

"I still believe in the fairness and soundness of that plan. The president thought otherwise.

Says Relief Imperative.

"However, the necessity for some measure of relief is so imperative as to warrant the suggestion that differences of opinion must be composed and a common ground found for successful congressional action. In my judgment, the enactment of the bill that passed the last session of the congress with the omission of the equalization fee would improve the condition of agriculture. At least it would supply the basis upon which helpful legislation could be fashioned.

"In a word, the plan contemplates the creation of a federal farm board, abundantly financed to make loans to co-operative associations and farmer-controlled stabilization corporations for the purpose of preventing violent price fluctuations and of controlling agricultural surpluses through the process of orderly marketing.

"If this remedy were tried and found to be ineffective or only partially effective, in my opinion the administration and the congress would unite upon an effort to devise some other remedy that would prove to be sound, sane and successful.

Will Need Entire Surplus.

"The time is not far distant when we will consume our entire farm surplus at home, but in the meantime, and at the earliest possible date, we should do all that can be done legislatively to remove agricultural depression which has weakened the whole economic national structure.

"In the absence of the president, who I believe to be in accord, I have discussed the subject with the republican nominee, Mr. Herbert Hoover, and found him sympathetic and anxious to relieve the distress of our farm population, and I bespeak for 7,000,000 farmers and their able leaders the same fine offer of assistance and consideration to the end that farm relief legislation may be enacted and approved at the next session of the congress."

Washington that he has not yet had."

"The east," he said, "was the determining factor in making the nominations for it had the votes, and, recognizing the needs and demands of the west, came heartily to our support. The overwhelming endorsement of the agricultural plank in the platform as opposed to the urgent plea of the equalization fee proponents indicates clearly the sentiment of the country on this question. In this conclusion, the expression of the west was almost as pronounced as that of the east. I think the question is now disposed of, and we may expect to see republican leadership go forward with a constructive program for agriculture."

A rather different impression was gained by some of the Nebaska people who watched the convention from the galleries. State Senator Dwight Griswold of Gordon left Kansas City with the impression that the east was not satisfied by any means with the selection of Hoover.

"I talked to one delegate from New York who said that they were 'sore.' Of course, with the hard local fight they have on their hands they were thinking of the New York republican chances rather than from a national angle. They felt that only two men would help them in New York against Smith and the democrats. Those two men were Hughes and Coolidge."

Saw Much Discontent.

Griswold also saw considerable discontent in such republican states as Ohio. This was exhibited in the indirect references by several speakers to Hoover's republicanism."

In spite of this discontentment, he said, his conversations with members of the Hoover opposition did not lead him to believe that they would go so far as to attempt to defeat Hoover in November.

"Governor McMullen," he said, "commanded considerable respect when he spoke. Many of the delegates were surprised when they saw and heard him. Several of them told me that they had expected to see a wild-eyed radical, but were surprised to find that the governor is a calm, deliberate speaker possessed of a pleasing appearance and personality."

As to McKelvie's prospects for the vice-presidential nomination, Griswold said that up to the last the choice was between Deneen, Curtis and McKelvie.

"If Nebraska had had two United States senators there on the floor who held some influence in the party, McKelvie would have been nominated," Griswold said.

Senator Griswold stopped in Lincoln Saturday with a party of western Nebraska men who had attended the convention. The party included A. M. Bartlett of Chadron, a delegate to the convention, George Snow of Chadron, and Judge E. L. Meyer of Alliance.

NO STATEMENT FROM GOVERNOR

of farm relief would have preferred some other candidate, I believe Mr. Hoover will come out with some definite plan which the agricultural leaders will find acceptable, and that his election will follow. So far as Curtis is concerned, his selection for vice-president suits our people very well."

"Then you don't think the threatened defections will prove serious?"

"I think Mr. Hoover wil be elected," was the indirect reply. "In my opinion he would not have taken such a pronounced position as he did on the McNary-Haugen bill if he had not been identified with the Coolidge administration. He has a chance to win western support, however, by presenting some concrete plan to aid the chief industry of this section."

Gives Philadelphia Boss Credit.

It was Boss Vare of Philadelphia, and not Secretary Mellon, who turned the Pennsylvania delegation to Hoover and thus assured the latter's nomination, said Woods.

"Except for Vare's influence, Lowden, Dawes or some other western agricultural leader would have been named," he declared. "The man who was thrown out of the United States senate is the one who controlled the convention.

He admitted that some of those who took an active part at Kansas City in demanding a "farm relief" plank and a candidate for president in sympathy with it are in a mood to support the democratic ticket and are going to Houston to see what they can get at that party's hands.

"There's no doubt the democratic platform will contain a strong endorsement plank for the McNary-Haugen bill," Woods predicted. "The farm issue is a nonpartisan one, however, and I think republicans generally who are interested in it will stick to their own party. The fight for such legislation will continue, and I am confident the next congress will repass the bill."

C. W. Meeker of Imperial, who was at Kansas City as a spectator, was among the party of Nebraskans who returned Friday night. He asserted that the entire program of the convention was carried out under white house inspiration.

"The Coolidge boom was kept alive until the psychological moment, and then all the administration forces turned to Hoover," said Meeker.

"If the election were held today a great many republican votes would be cast against Hoover. Later on, when the feeling of resentment has cooled down, some of those now off the reservation will no doubt come back. Others will not."

Fleming Not in Happy Mood.

Fenton B. Fleming, First district delegate, affiliated with the McNary Haugen faction of the Nebraska delegation, is not pleased with what was done at Kansas City. He was disinclined to say much for publication, but nevertheless expressed himself rather forcefully on several phases of the convention.

"Do you feel as though you had been steam-rolled?" a Star representative asked him.

"Not steam-rolled, but disgraced," he answered. "You can judge for yourself by the fact that the nomination of Hoover was not made unanimous in the convention. There were 200 or 300 delegates who voted 'no' on that motion. The chairman declared it unanimous, but it wasn't by a long shot.

"I heard a lot of comment to the effect that 'if we have to vote for a democrat for president one democrat ought be as good as another. I never saw more bitterness manifested in a political gathering, and much of it persisted to the end.

"The band wagon music didn't sound good to me any stage of the affair. So far as Curtis is concerned he would have been all right for president, but as a 'sweetener' for the head of the ticket it's different.

"We'll have to wait and see what happens at Houston. Personally, I feel like joining the 'I don't vote' club, in which I understand Mr. Hoover used to hold membership."

Four years ago, Mr. Fleming was president of the Coolidge republican club in Lincoln and did a great deal of active work for the g. o. p. ticket.

How Nebraskans Got In.

Jesse V. Craig, chief of the state blue sky bureau, served as an assistant sergeant-at-arms during the convention and in that capacity helped to get a lot of Nebraska people into the hall, who were unable to get tickets in the regular way.

"We had a chain of fellows, beginning with the police officer out on the sidewalk, who saw to it that folks from Nebraska who had come to see the convention got in," said Craig. "The outside doorkeeper and the inside ticket taker were in on this arrangement. A card from National Committeeman C. A. McCloud was sufficient to secure admission from the bearer. When anybody having one of these cards held it up the policeman whisked him through the crowd to the doorkeeper, who passed him in. There were plenty of seats in the hall, even with these extra admissions."

Harry W. Scott, deputy state tax commissioner, and secretary of the republican state committee, drove back from Kansas City on Friday afternoon, starting before the convention was over. A. J. Weaver, candidate for governor, came with him from Falls City.

Thinks Borah's Speech Best.

Senator Borah's speech supporting the majority report of the platform committee, at Thursday's session, impressed Mr. Scott as the best one delivered during the convention. Kansas City, he said, outdid itself in entertaining the visitors.

George C. Snow of Chadron stopped off here Saturday, enroute home from Kansas City gathering.

"I think the boys are all going to get into line for the ticket," he opined.

Mrs. McMullen, wife of the governor, was an interested spectator and returned with him. Others from Lincoln who came back Friday night were Walton G. Roberts, Walton B. Roberts, Arthur Beckman, R. W. Devoe, and Victor Seymour.

SENATOR NORRIS HITS PLATFORM OF REPUBLICANS

Pennsylvania delegation to go solid for Hoover.

Raps Bascom Slemp.

"Then there was Bascom Slemp, famous for his handling of presidential appointments in the solid south and one of the principal cogs in the southern political machine, using his influence, his power, and his knowledge to secure Hoover delegates through the instrumentality of disgraceful, office-holding, political combinations in the southern states.

"Ex-Senator Lenroot was selected to go to Kansas City and represent him (Hoover) in the contests that came before the convention. He was part of the big Hoover steam roller, and when he went there and while he was engaged in putting the Hoover delegates across, his pockets were lined with a $20,000 fee that he had received from the water power trust to lobby before a senate committee."

"The rank and file of the great republican party will be disgusted and humiliated," he said, "but the power trust, as well as the Hoovers, Daughertys, the Sinclairs, the Dohenys, the Falls, the Smoots, the Hayses, the Lenroots, the Fesses, the Moseses and the machine politicians everywhere, will be happy and delighted.

"Apology" In Order.

"If this program is endorsed at the polls, it will be the duty of the senate when it reconvenes in December, to apologize to Power Trust Insull and his man from Illinois, for whose election he contributed more than $100,000; to seat Boss Vare, the representative of the Philadelphio political machine; to reinstate Daugherty; to apologize to Sinclair and Doheny and to pass a law returning to them the property which the Supreme court of the United States said they had fraudulently obtained; to give a certificate of character to ex-Secretary Fall; to ask for the pardon of Miller, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary; to destroy the incriminating evidence which investigation brought forth of the fraudulent profits of O'Neil and Stewart; to invite Blackmer to return from his hiding place in Europe and to receive him in good society with open arms; to condemn the Supreme court of the United States for declaring the Fall-Sinclair-Doheny deals were disgraceful and fraudulent; to call upon the federal trade commission to cease its investigation wherein it is disclosing the sinister attacks upon our government by the power trust; and to ask forgiveness for all its activities in disclosing fraud and dishonesty in high official places."

white house as to whether he was successful in his quest for fish yesterday. While some witnesses claimed he caught some fish, others said they understood he had not hooked any. Even those who claimed success for the president, however, could not give details as to the size and kind of fish caught.

No Church Decision.

President and Mrs. Coolidge have not yet decided at which of the two churches available to them they will worship tomorrow. A white-washed frame church quaint in its smallness, at the small hamlet of Brule, six miles from the lodge, has been suggested to Mr. Coolidge. This chapel belongs to the Congregational faith, Mr. Coolidge's own religion, and there officiates John Taylor, a 70-year-old blind lay minister originally from Duluth.

RISING WATER INUNDATES BIG AREA IN SOUTH

district sometime tomorrow. With the levees along a twenty-five mile stretch already in a serious condition, it was feared that another break in the vicinity of Campbell would follow.

This would turn the flood waters loose on approximately 75,000 additional acres of farm land.

Arkansas Land Inundated.

NEW PORT, Ark., June 16—(AP)—Flood waters of the White river today spread out fan-like over approximately 40,000 acres of land, some of it newly cultivated, and the 800 residents of the valley in the lower parts of Jackson county were camped in improvised homes on higher ground.

The main levee at Stephens, twelve miles south of Newport, crashed last night, but a warning broadcast twenty-four hours previously enabled farmers and tenants to escape with their livestock.

After the break, Lieut. L. B. Washburn of the United States engineer's office at Memphis took 200 and cut a new gap in the dike a short distance north of Stephens to lessen the pressure on the lower levees.

Many Endangered.

KENNETT, Mo., June 16—(By the Associated Press.)— One thousand families were endangered today as the levee on the St. Francis river about six miles northwest of Kennett, county seat of Dunklin county, gave way at 1:30 o'clock this morning. It is believed that more than 20,000 acres of bottom land will be inundated.

The break came following a strenuous day and night of labor by 3,000 citizens in an effort to hold the twenty-five mile river front against the surging water. The break, starting with a small seepage hole, was 150 feet wide at 2 o'clock.

Five companies of Missouri national guardsmen are on duty here.

Stephens Levee Breaks.

NEWPORT, Ark., June 16—(AP)—Nearly 40,000 acres in the White river valley were flooded today and thousands more were being inundated gradualy by water released last night when the Stephens levee near here broke.

More than 700 families were homeless, many being cared for by the Red Cross.

The levee collapses while 300 men were working frantically to save it. The river had reached its crest and it was believed the greatest danger had passed when, without warning, the great embankment gave way. The laborers abandoned their equipment and fled, some of them narrowly escaping death.

Families whose homes were in the flood's path were prepared and moved to higher ground without loss of life.

North Levee Cut.

An hour later, the levee a mile north of the break was cut to lessen pressure on a long stretch of the crumbling walls.

The villages of Auvergne, Shoffner, Weldon and Tupelo, in the flood's path, were practically deserted today.

Water was backing up toward Cotton Plant and it was believed the railroad yards in that county seat town would be flooded.

Efforts were being made to keep railroads open although the Rock Island into Newport had already suspended.

THE WEATHER.

There are centers of high pressure in the northeastern states and also in the northwest. A trough of low pressure between them extends along the eastern slope of the Rockies from the Canadian Provinces southward to New Mexico. Partly cloudy and unsettled weather has resulted in the Missouri Valley and the Great Plains with scattered thundershowers in Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas, and temperatures are now somewhat above normal in those states. Fair and cool weather is general in the rest of the country.

CHICAGO ASKS NON-PARTISAN ELECTION LAW

Citizens Association Seeking Plan Eliminate Corruption.

Officials of City and Cook County Say Methods Obsolete.

CHICAGO, June 16—(I. N. S.)—Recommendation that the election laws of Illinois be placed upon a non-partisan basis in order to eliminate corruption, graft, ballot box stuffing and fraud, was made here by the Citizens' association, a civic organization formed for the betterment of existing conditions.

The statement, issued by Augustus Peabody, president of the organization, declares that the present election laws, enacted in 1885, should be changed to meet present conditions in accordance with improvements in election practices made in Milwaukee, Omaha, Detroit and other large cities.

The statement also quotes Cook County Judge Edmund Jarecki to the effect the chief weakness of the election law is the limitation that necessitates appointments of 12,000 judges and clerks of election from lists of persons affiliated with the majority and minority parties.

Party Control.

"Our present election law is based upon bipartisan control of the election machinery," the statement says. "Of late years this plan has completely failed to safeguard our elections and has broken down everywhere else that it has been tried. The experience of Chicago and other cities proves that their elections should be made non-partisan rather than bi-partisan control.

"Our present registration system is fundamentally faulty. It is tremendously expensive; it is highly inconvenient to the mass of voters; and it is ineffective in preventing fraud.

"The registers contain a great many illegal names making it easy for crooked machinery working through subservient precinct officials to steal large amounts of votes.

"The precinct canvass or check-up on the registered voter is done poorly or not at all in sections of the city where vote fraud is prevalent. If we are to make registers clean in Chicago and other cities the work of canvassing must be taken from the hands of irresponsible precinct workers.

"Permanent registering of voters is spreading rapidly throughout the country. It has been adopted recently in Iowa, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Idaho, Minnesota and Delaware. Movements are now on foot in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, California, and Washington for the adoption of permanent registration. It is fundamentally sound.

To Change Registry.

"The voter is required to register only once providing he resides in the city, being permitted to transfer from one address to another. Permanent registration greatly reduces the cost, facilitates the registration of the bona fide voter and makes it comparatively easy with proper precautions to keep the registry lists free from illegal names at all times.

"Under our present system the voter is not adequately identified when he votes. This makes it possible for repeaters to vote under the names of those who have died or moved away.

"The worst forms of election frauds in Chicago are the stuffing of ballot boxes and the making of false returns. Investigations which we have conducted year after year have shown how common it is for corrupt precinct workers to fraudulently enter the names of registered voters in the pollbooks as having voted and to stuff a corresponding number of votes in the ballot boxes. In many precincts the votes have not been counted at all.

"These frauds strike at the very life of our form of government and they must and will be stopped although it may take time. A number of large cities have adopted voting machines to put an end to the fraudulent count in some precincts.

"The experience of these cities which have used machines should be weighed and investigated and machines tried out on a small scale in Chicago and several other Illinois cities.

200 Year Supply of Rare Building Stone Found in Colorado

DENVER, June 16—(I. N. S.)—Travertine, a rare building stone, found heretofore only in Italian quarries near Tivoli, has been discovered and is now being produced in a marketable quantity from a quarry near Salida, 75 miles southwest of Denver.

J. J. Kerr, former owner of the estate upon which the stone was found, recognized the material after he had made a trip to Italy to inspect the product of the Tivoli quarries. Immediately he began advancing his newly found enterprise. The quarry on his property has been in operation periodically since 1880, but the product has been used only for its lime deposit. A local storage building was the first to be constructed with it. Shortly after its completion, however, Kerr died. His estate was bought by eastern capitalist who began marketing the stone on a nationwide scael. Several of the leading buildings on both coasts, as well as through the middle west, have been built with the Colorado product.

According to official of the producing company, the deposit, composed of crystallized lime or marble coming from hot springs carrying lime solution, is sufficient to last 200 years.

Accidents on Decrease German Reports Show

BERLIN, June 16—(I. N. S.)—Berlin is one city in the world in which accidents are decreasing instead of increasing, despite growing automobile traffic.

The number of accidents during December was 1,809, compared with 1,906 during November and 2,313 during October.

Twelve men and two women were killed, 433 men and 160 women injured.

The greatest number of accidents happen Saturdays between 5 and 6 p. m.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Farms and Land for Sale 83

FARM LAND AT AUCTION—640 acres of best farm land in western Hall Co. You will find no better land anywhere. Everyone knows the best land in Hall Co. lies in Jackson and Wood River townships; 320 acres lies two miles south and a half mile west of Wood River on the Lincoln Highway; 240-acre farm on Shoemaker Island, 5 miles south and 1½ miles east of Wood River; 80 acres located a half mile east and a mile south of Wood River. These three are outstanding, producing farms. All this land will positively be sold to the highest bidder, Tuesday, June 19th, at the Opera House, Wood River, Nebr., beginning at 2:00 p. m. This sale affords a rare opportunity to buy a good farm where there is assurance of getting a crop every year. The land, which is in different tracts, is mostly bottom Platte Valley land and knows no crop failure. It is seldom that fertile land like this can be bought at your own price—320 acres, located 2 miles south and a half mile west of Wood River, on the Lincoln Highway. Legally described as the West Half of Section One (1), Township Nine (9), Range Twelve (12). It will be sold in part or as a whole; 30 acres of this tract is hay land, balance is under cultivation, partly in sugar beets; all level land and fertile soil. Your inspection is invited. A long time loan of $19,000 carried back on this 320 acres if desired. Purchaser is to receive $1,600 cash rent for this year—80 acres, located a half mile east and a mile south of Wood River. This 80 is all level land. It is all in wheat and fenced. A loan of $5,000 will be carried back on this land. Purchaser to receive $400 cash rent for this year—240-acre farm, located on what is known as Shoemaker Island, 5 miles south of Wood River, across bridge and a mile and a half east, formerly known as the Herman Ehlers place; 80 acres of this farm in alfalfa and corn, balance pasture and midland hay. An acre of this pasture land will take care of three times the number of cattle as an ordinary pasture. This farm knows no overflow. A good set of improvements, consisting of 5-room house and summer kitchen, large barn with lean-to on one side and corn crib and granary on the other; chicken house, windmill, etc. All newly fenced with steel posts. This place must be seen to be appreciated; $12,000 carried back on this place. Purchaser to receive one-half of $1,000 cash rent this year. Terms, 15 per cent to be paid date of sale, balance over loan due when abstract has been approved and deed delivered to purchaser. Oscar Lompe, Owner. John Behr, Sales Manager, 111½ East Third St., Grand Island, Nebr. Arnold J. Schultz, Auctioneer, Grand Island, Nebr. Farmers State Bank, Clerk, Wood River, Nebr.

FARM HOME MARKET—We supply your needs. Chas. A. Herman, 402 Federal Trust Bldg.

QUICK CASH SALE—Of farms and lands. Millions dollars worth sold for satisfied clients. Write F. O. Kucera, Land Auctioneer, 303 So. 11th St., Lincoln.

SEWARD COUNTY FARM AT AUCTION—158 acres of the best land in Seward County with a wonderful set of improvements. An outstanding, well balanced place—one that will make an ideal farm home. Owner decided to sell only on account of age and poor health. Located 3¼ miles north of Garland, formerly Germantown; 12½ miles northeast of Seward; 6 miles southeast of Bee; 7 miles south of Dwight, 12 mi. southwest of Valparaiso. This fine Seward County farm will positively be sold, rain or shine, to the highest bidder, Thursday, June 21, at the "Folly," Garland, Nebr., beginning at 2:00 o'clock. This sale affords a rare opportunity of buying a good farm where no crop failure is known and in one of the most fertile districts in Nebraska. It is seldom that land like this can be bought at your own price. A general invitation is extended to everyone to attend this sale, ladies as well as gentlemen. Contains 158 acres. Legally described as the Southwest ¼ of Section 21, Township A, Range 12, located 3½ miles north of Garland. Improvements consist of almost new two-story eight-room house with full basement, furnace, wash room, and other modern conveniences. Barn, 30x40, with 16-foot studding, hip roof, hay fork and rope, room for 25 tons of hay; garage, granary, corn crib, hen houses, etc. Two wonderful orchards, one 15 years old and one 6 years old, and every known fruit growing in Nebraska is here. The home surroundings are a garden spot. Well fenced; good well and running water in both pastures, which have burr oak and walnut timber in them, too. This land is slightly rolling with a lot of the best bottom land; 110 acres of this farm are under cultivation; 10 acres in alfalfa; 30 acres in wheat; 15 acres in oats; balance in corn, with 5 or 6 acres in hay meadow. Terms, 15 per cent date of sale, balance March 1st, when possession will be given. Loan on the place for $5,400, which will be carried or make a new loan if necessary and get more. We will be glad to show this place to anyone interested. C. J. Wagenknecht, Owner. John Behr, Sales Manager, Grand Island, Nebr. Arnold J. Schultz, Auctioneer, Grand Island, Nebr. Germantown State Bank, of Garland, Clerk.

Cardinals Grab Lead In National League Race

Red Birds Down Robins While Cinci Club Bows To Tailend Phillies

The St. Louis Cardinals, champions of 1926 and near-repeaters last season, have winged their way to the top of the National league standings.

Two weeks of better than .800 percent baseball, climaxed by a thrilling 14-inning triumph over Brooklyn yesterday, enabled the Cardinals to climb over the Cincinnati Reds and head the parade in John Heydler's circuit for the first time since the first few days of the current campaign.

The Reds, unfortunately for them, picked yesterday to lose to the Phillies and now rate in second place, 15 percentage points back of the leaders.

Bottomley's Timely Homer.

Jim Bottomley's thirteenth home run of the season, with two on in the fourteenth, gave Bill McKechnie's clan its 5 to 2 victory over the Dodgers. That drive not only won the ball game but it put Jim in a tie with Rogers Hornsby for individual home run honors. It was the Cards' thirteenth victory in their last 16 games.

The Reds fought hard to avert defeat at Philadelphia, but failed by the margin of a single run, 8 to 7, in a free hitting contest. Don Hurst, new first-sacker of the Phillies, clubbed his fourth homer in five games.

Giants Smother Pirates.

The New York Giants subdued Pittsburgh, 9 to 1. Vic Aldridge, traded by Pittsburgh for Burleigh Grimes, allowed only six hits, rapped out a home run and two singles and scored three runs.

With Hornsby under a five-day suspension for his protest against Umpire Pfirman's decision calling him out on strikes, the Boston Brarves proceeded to lose their seventh straight game, this time to the Cubs, 5 to 4.

Yankees Downed by Browns.

The New York Yankees lost their eleventh contest of the season to St. Louis, 5 to 4, despite Babe Ruth's twenty-fourth homer of the year. Otis Brannon's double, with the bases filled in the fifth, was worth more, in the end, than Ruth's round trip blow which came with one on.

The Philadelphia Athletics cut the Yanks' lead to eight and a half games by pounding out an easy 12 to 5 verdict over the foundering Indians at Cleveland. Lefty Grove pitched a strong game and never was in trouble.

Senators Trim Tigers.

Continuing their return to the form expected of them before the season started, the Washington Senators made it two in a row over Detroit, 5 to 4, in 10 innings. The Tigers accepting their fifth straight defeat. Sam Rice's double, a sacrifice and Barnes' single scored the winning run in the first extra inning.

Danny MacFayden came within two innings of pitching a no-hit game as the Boston Red Sox beat the White Sox at Chicago, 3 to 1.

Hitless Until Eighth.

MacFayden allowed no hit until McCurdy singled in the eighth. Three more hits in the ninth scored the White Sox' only run. Regan's homer with Todt on base in the fourth, was the blow that decided the issue.

The Giants have acquired Genewich, right-handed pitcher, from the Braves, in trade for Barnes, Clarkson and Cantwell, pitchers, and Spohrer, catcher. Friday's major league results.

Chick's Thanks to One-Man Gallery

BY AL DEMAREE.

Golfers have never been able to figure out the vagaries of the average golf gallery at the big tournaments. Just why the golf bugs should swarm after one golfer and ignore another just as good or even better performer has never been satisfactorily explained, as the gallery apparently has no set standards.

Walter Hagen, probably the greatest gallery attraction of them all, treats his gallery with a sort of good natured tolerance and they eat it up. Jock Hutchison, who also always has a great following, is just the opposite. He is almost a part of his own gallery, he talks and exchanges good-natured sallies with them and his club swinging and making of shots is almost incidental.

Golf galleries are also as fickle as baseball fans and will desert their former favorites just as quickly when they start to slip. Even as popular and great a golfer as Chick Evans played an entire round with only his caddy and one man following him.

Not a word was spoken all day until the final putt was sunk, when mutual introductions ensued.

His lone gallery was none other than Frank Craven, the actor—a dyed-in-wool golfer and golf bug.

Flying Cloud Holds Pace In Long Race

UKIAH, Cal., June 16—(AP)—With a lead of about a dozen miles over his closest competitor, Flying Cloud, Karook Indian representing the Oregon cavemen, today continued trotting northward toward the halfway point in the 482-mile Redwood highway marathon between San Francisco and Grant's pass, Ore.

Flying Cloud was 11 miles north of here at 11 p. m. last night and 129 miles from Thursday's starting point.

"Crescent Feather," entered by the Crescent City chamber of commerce, was in second place. He reached Ukiah at 10:55 p. m.

"Chief Ukiah," third among the 25 contestants still in the race, arrived here at 11 p. m. He held second place early in the night, but halted for two hours rest a few miles south of here, allowing "Crescent Feather" to take the lead. Four Indians quit the race yesterday.

GETS NO DOUGH FOR RING KAYO

Hard - Hearted Referee Doubts Integrity of Floto Victory.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., June 16—Phil Floto, brawny miner, today had staked another claim as a potential heavyweight champion, but was without pay dirt.

His purse was held up after he sent Jack Lee, sparring partner of Jack Dempsey, crashing to the canvas in the third stanza of their scheduled 10-round battle here last night.

Ringsiders said Floto landed a smashing left hook on Lee's jaw, but Jim Baum, inspector for the California athletic commission, contended it was a mere tap and ordered an investigation.

Fists vs. "Ju Jit."

LA PAZ, Bolivia, June -6—(AP) A jiu jitsu expert will put his craft against a boxer, each using his own weapons of attack and defense, in a bout to be held here shortly.

Professor Kentara Hara, the jiu jitsu exponent, will tackle Joe Kann, heavyweight boxer, in a 10-round bout conducted under rules similar to those governing prize fights. Kann will put on the regulation boxing gloves, while Hara's only offensive weapons will lie in the strength of his hands and the tricks of his trade.

LINKS MOVE UP TO THIRD PLACE

Down North Platte While Colonels Win From Norfolk Club.

FRIDAY RESULTS.
Norfolk, 2; McCook, 10.
Lincoln, 8; North Platte, 3.
Fairbury, 3; York, 4.
Beatrice, 5; Grand Island, 15.

SUNDAY GAMES.
Norfolk at McCook (2).
Beatrice at Grand Island (2).
York at Fairbury (2).
Lincoln at North Platte (2).

McCook's Colonels, performing at their home park, are holding fast to their position on the top rung of the Nebraska league pennant ladder. The Colonels came to grips Friday with the Norfolk Elkhorns in the opening game of a series involving leadership in the flag chase and knocked the Elkhorns flat, 10 to 2.

While Norfolk was coming down, Lincoln's Links kept on going up, stepping on the North Platte Buffaloes, 8 to 4, and advancing to third place in the percentage reckoning. To date on their western jaunt, the Links have bagged two out of three.

Dukes Also Move Up.

The York Dukes also improved their rating by downing Fairbury, 4 to 3, and the tailend Grand Island club, after trimming Fairbury in the odd game of a series ending Thursday, held fast to their winning habit by trouncing Beatrice, 15 to 5.

Heavy swinging of hickory bats on the part of the Links featured the capital city club's triumph at North Platte. Taylor mauled a pair of homers and Baltzell followed suit with a circuit tripper and an additional wallop for three bases. Rhoades, the league's leading pitcher in games won, stood the gaff for three innings, retiring to the shower after the Links had punished him for four runs. Lefty McKendrick went the route for the Links.

Colonels Land on Toft.

The McCook-Norfolk fray was in doubt until the seventh frame. when the Colonels prodded Toft for five runs and clinched the victory. Barnhart pitched brilliantly for McCook, holding the Elkhorns to five hits.

York's Dukes had to step lively to nose ahead of Fairbury. The Fairchilds were leading until the Dukes took their turn at bat in the eighth to clip off two runs and win, 4-3. Martin, Fairbury infielder, fractured an ankle bone in sliding to a base.

Blue Pitchers Generous.

Two Beatrice pitchers, Yohe and Allison, were more than generous with their free passes to first and the Islanders, meantime, were busy with their bats, hammering their way to a lop-sided victory, 15-5. Manager Brokaw went to the mound in finishing the eighth inning, in which the Islanders peeled off eight tallies. Manager Pierpont clouted a homer and three singles and Parsons, Grand Island's shortstop, whammed four safe blows.

Puddlers Repeat On Indian Tribe

Pueblo cut another game off Oklahoma City's lead in the Western league pennant race Friday when the Puddlers beat the Indians, 9 to 7. Nietzke's homer with the bases loaded in the fifth inning spotted the victory to Pueblo.

O'Brien's home run with the bases filled gave Denver a 6-4 win over Tulsa. O'Brien's wallops came in the eighth frame.

Wichita collected 17 hits to beat Omaha, 11 to 6, and Amarillo trimmed the floundering Des Moines outfit, 12 to 4.

FOGGY VERDICT GOES TO SHADE

Decree to Coast Fighter Provokes Criticism Gotham Circles.

BY SID MERCER.

NEW YORK, June 16— One of those rare ring occurrences, a real grudge fight, wound up with a foggy decision last night at the Coney Island stadium, when Dave Shade was declared winner over George Courtney at the end of 10 rounds of mean milling.

This pair, ranked among the leading middleweights, had never met before this and, with the possibility of a title bout with Mickey Walker looming up for the winner, plus personal dislike of each other, they came down to the wire fighting savagely.

Final Round to Shade.

Shade carried the final round by spearing the wildly rushing Oklahoman with a variety of cleanly delivered punches. Dave's finish evidently won him the nomination, as Courtney had previously won at least five rounds. However, George had been guilty of much holding and rough, unethical mauling and wrestling.

A majority of the press box observers thought Shade deserved no better than a draw and many contended that the round by round score should have returned Courtney the winner.

Courtney Incesed.

Courtney was so incensed at the verdict that he refused to shake hands with Shade and raised his gloved hands in gestures of disgust.

The men indulged in many wordy exchanges as they hammered away at each other. Courtney carried the fight to the Californian in the early rounds and, although he missed many leads at the bobbing figure in front of him, scored often with left hooks and uppercuts.

Armour Grip Gets Wrists In Control

By SOL METZGER.

Tommy Armour, U. S. open golf champion, will have some defending to do at Olympia Fields next week. But Tommy may overcome the tremendous odds he faces. He is a keen student of whys and wherefores, so his game differs slightly from that of other top-notchers. Tommy gets both hands more over the leather than most of the others, and is addicted to a slightly closed stance. Result, when off his game his wrists are the cause. Too much wrist, and a costly hook follows.

On the last hole at Pinehurst during the recent North and South open he hooked an iron through the ropes far to the left of the green. It struck the leg of a chair on which sat a lady and rebounded close to the hole. That won Tommy second place and the lady a courteous "Thank you!" from him. But luck can't be depended on to help like that.

I've sketched Tommy's grip on the right, the ordinary duffer's grip on the left. Both are overlapping. But note the difference in position of the first finger of each right hand. Tommy makes his a finger grip, whereas the duffer is using something akin to a palm grip.

This finger grip enables one to get his wrists into the shot and to gain distance as a result. It also helps one to control the club at the top of the swing without particular effort. The duffer at the top, using the other grip, often finds the club drops into the crotch formed by the first finger and thumb of his right hand. Control is impossible when this happens. Watch your first finger and thumb!

A few simple but vital points to remember in putting will keep your score down. Write Sol Metzger, care of this paper, and get his leaflet on Putting which is free. In writing enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Lind Sets Dizzy Pace On Diamond

CLEVELAND, June 16—(AP)—Carl Lind, recruit second baseman of the Cleveland Indians, has accepted 114 chances since making his last error and his string of perfect games stands unbroken at 16.

Lind kicked a grounder off Lu Blue's bat in a game with St. Louis May 26. Since then, his record has been 50 putouts and 64 assists. Lind was with Denver in the Western league last year.

ENGLAND WINS WIGHTMAN CUP

Score Even at 3-3 Until British Women Took Final Doubles.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 16—England won the Wightman tennis cup from the United States this afternoon when Mrs. Margaret Watson and Miss Eileen Bennett defeated Miss Helen Wills and Miss Penelope Anderson in the doubles by 6-2, 6-1. The English players were victors by four matches to three.

Helen Jacobs Wins Match.

WIMBLEDON, England, June 16—(AP)—The United States today drew up to even terms with the English in the Wightman cup tennis play between women's teams when Miss Helen Jacobs of California defeated Miss Betty Nuthall, 6-3, 4-1.

The issue thus depends upon the outcome of the seventh and last match scheduled in which Miss Helen Wills and Miss Penelope Anderson of America encounter Mrs. Holcroft Watson and Miss Eileen Bennett of England in doubles.

Miss Jacobs' victory tied the count in the matches won at three for each team. In previous matches today, Mrs. Molla Mallory lost to Mrs. Watson, 2-6, 6-1, 6-2, and Miss Helen Wills won fro mMiss Eileen Bennett, 6-3, 6-2. In the first day's play England had taken a 2-1 lead.

Doubles Result in Doubt.

As the two crack doubles teams prepared to take the court for the final encounter to decide the costody of the cup, there appeared little to choose between them.

In the second set of the Wills-Bennett match, nearly every game was hard fought and the gallery of 8,000 burst into applause time after time as Miss Wills sent blistering drives across so fast Miss Bennett was unable to get her racquet on them.

Miss Bennett won the first game of the second set on her service. Miss Wills took two, then dropped one and again seemed to say to herself, "things have gone far enough," as she won the next four. Miss Bennett took the last game to deuce twice.

Point Score of Match.

The point score of the Wills-Bennett match:

First set—
Miss Wills 2 4 2 4 2 4 4 4 5—31—6
Miss Ben't 4 2 4 1 4 0 0 1 3—19—3
Second set—

Glick Forced To Quit When Ahead In Glove Battle

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 16—(AP)—Sailor Eddie Kelly of Denver, Colo., won a 10-round decision over Chick Samms of Bladen, Neb., in the main event of a boxing show here last night. In the semi-finals Mickey Durane, Omaha, won from Frankie Glick, Lincoln, when Glick's manager, Billy Hale, tossed the towel early in the fifth round. Glick had dislocated a bone in his right hand and Manager Hale refused to let his protege continue. Glick twice floored Durane in the first round.

FEET WILL FLY ON U. S. CINDERS

American Athletes Face Olympic Tests In Three Compets.

HAHN GOES ON MARK.

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—Uncle Sam will get a further line on what he may expect from the east in the way of Olympic material today when 350 athletes display their wares at the Yankee Stadium in the eastern sectional tryouts for the American team which will represent America at Amsterdam this summer.

Aside from a crack field in the sprints, greatest interest will attach to Lloyd Hahn's first outdoor competition of the season. He will run the 800 meters against George Lenness of the Newark A. C.; Pinkie Sober, Holy Name club; Schuyler Enck, Meadowbrook club, Philadelphia, and Oliver Proudlock, Newark A. C.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, June 16— The question of just how much of a splurge your favorite uncle, with the striped pants, high hat, chin whisker and the name of Samuel, may be prepared to make in the Olympic games at Amsterdam this summer will be presented for a show down in three major sectors of the country this afternoon. New York will muster the flower of eastern competition at the Yankee Stadium, Denver will call forth the best of the Rocky mountain district and Los Angeles, ever the happy hunting ground for talent on the spiked hoof will send to the post one of the finest groups of sprinters, jumpers, hurdlers, and what-would-you ever assembled on one field.

Sectional Tryouts.

The occasions in question will be sectional Olympic trials, preliminary to the final and ultimate qualification for team places in Boston early in July. Winners and second men in the eastern intercollegiates and the national collegiate A. A. games already have staked their claims to a fling at the Boston finale, So have the qualifiers in the Pacific trials at San Francisco, the Pacific northwest test at Portland, Ore., the southern affair at Dallas and the southeastern sectionals at Atlanta.

But with the east, the Rockies and the southern Pacific sections still to show their cards and the Allegheny mountains, the mid-western and the central districts reserving their trials for later in the month, it may be conceded that the backbone of the embryonic team has yet to prove its strength or weakness.

Paddock vs. Borah.

Outside of Claude Bracey, sensational Texan, and a casual few other the sprinters who have qualified for the Boston games to date do not bear the hallowed names that have served to make America great. This deficiency will be altered this afternoon, both at Los Angeles and in the Yankee stadium.

Is Charley Paddock still the "fastest human?" He very nearly will have to be to outfoot the field they are dropping him in with on the coast this afternoon. The day Charles was said to have done 9½ seconds for the hundred, there was some question of whether he hadn't actually been headed at the tape by another man. The latter was and still is Charley Borah and he will be in there against Paddock again this afternoon.

Locke Not In Form.

The Yankee Stadium field of sprinters will be equally meritorious in quality and considerably greater in quantity. The good ones will include Jackson Scholz, Olympic champion; Frank Hussey, and Chet Bowman, members of the 1924 team; Hank Russell, back to form again; Roland Locke, the ex-Cornhusker, whose injuries have prevented him from resuming his record-breaking career of two years ago, and a coteril of collegians.

Those games also will show Lloyd Hahn under colors for the first time since he entered a new world's half-mile record in the books last march. Hahn has declared for the 800-metre distance and his performance will be watched jealously by the American coaches, who are figuring on the Nebraskan to break up the Nurmi monopoly on the Olympic middle distance races.

Haynes Plenty Speedy.

It is understood that the Denver games will send only about six men to the Boston trials, but one of them, Ed Haynes, seems to be as much of a stand-out as most of those mentioned above. Haynes has beaten even time for the hundred and has shown a quarter in 48¾ seconds. He probably will make his play for this event.

The coast affair will have further interest because of the meeting of John Kuck, recent world record maker, and Clarence Houser, Olympic champion, in the shot put. This pair will come pretty close to finishing one-two at Amsterdam if Houser is right. As for Kuck, he never has been wrong.

Plays Second Round In Matrimony Game

KANSAS CITY, June 16—(AP)—Mrs. Miriam Burns Horn of Kansas City, national women's golf champion, will be married in August to George W. Tyson, a buyer here for a Chicago packing company, it was announced today.

Mrs. Horn has a two-year-old son by a former marriage to Joseph Horn of Chicago, to whom she was married about four years ago. She obtained a divorce a year ago.

The national women's golf title was won by Mrs. Horn last September at Long Island, N. Y.

CHICAGO, June 16—(A. P.)—Mickey Walker may center his attack on the body when he meets Ace Hudkins, the "Nebraska Wildcat," in defense of his middleweight title at Comiskey park next Thursday night.

Drills on Body Punching.

Resuming training yesterday, after a day's layoff, the champion drilled incessantly on body punching, shooting 90 per cent of his blows to his sparring mates' midriff. He is holding his left a trifle higher, training to ward off Ace's vicious swings to the head.

Ace Swings His Fists.

As for the challenger, he is training along his old theory—that his offense will be his best defense. He tosses punches from every angle at his sparring partners and hopes to outpunch the champion in the early rounds and run him down for a knockout before the final tenth.

Big Bam Far Ahead His Homer Record

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—George Herman Ruth's twenty-fourth homer of the season, made yesterday off Crowder of the St. Louis Browns, puts him seven games ahead of his last year's record. He is nine up on Buster Gehrig, his closest contender.

Jim Bottomley contributed his thirteenth circuit clout of the campaign, going into a tie with Rogers Hornsby for home run hitting laurels in the National league.

Hens Gain A Game In A. A. Flag Race

The Milwaukee Brewers, after descending to the second division in the American association race for a spell, are again tied for second place with Indianapolis today. They gained the tie yesterday by turning in their fourth straight victory, defeating St. Paul, 7 to 6, in a heavy hitting contest, while the luckless Indians lost to Columbus, 6 to 4.

Toledo gained a full game in the race, adding to its first place percentage, by defeating Louisville, 9 to 4. Pat Crawford, young Mudhen third-sacker, turned in two hits, running his hit record to 14 consecutives games.

Kansas City and Minneapolis enjoyed an off schedule day.

All of yesterday's games were slugging matches, the six teams poling out 64 hits. Friday's results:

At Milwaukee.
St. Paul 6 14 0
Milwaukee 7 14 2
Batteries—Betts, Hopkins, Giard, Hirsch, Zahniser and Easton; Eddleman, Sanders and McMenemy.

At Toledo.
Louisville 4 12 3
Toledo 9 13 1
Batteries—Moss and Thompson, Bird; Huntzinger and O'Neil.

At Columbus.
Indianapolis 4 10 2
Columbus 6 12 1
Batteries—Swentonie, Speece and Spencer; Ash and Ferrell.

Big League Briefs.

The St. Louis Cardinals, who have dislodged the not so natty Ciney Reds from the top rung of the National league ladder after a long stern chase, face stronger opposition today from the third place New York Giants.

In a characteristic last-minute trade, a few hours before the 25-player limit went into effect last night, Manager John McGraw obtained the veteran pitcher he needed to round out his mound staff. He swapped Catcher Al Spohrer and three twirlers—the veteran Virgil Barnes and two rookies, Ben Cantwell and Bill Clarkson—to the Boston Braves in exchange for Joe Genewich.

The Cardinals eased into first place when Sunny Jim Bottomley's homer, with two on base in the fourteenth, staked them to a 5 to 2 win over Brooklyn.

The tail-end Phillies took an 8 to 7 slugfest from the Reds.

Vic Aldridge, former Pirate, made a home run and two singles in addition to pitching the Giants to a 9 to 1 victory over the Bucs.

The Braves dropped their seventh straight game when the Cubs nosed them out, 5 to 4.

Detroit lost out to Washington in the tenth, 5 to 4. The Athletics swamped Cleveland, 12 to 5.

Brannon and Kress, the Tulsa twins, personally conducted the sprightly St. Louis Browns to a 5 to 4 win over the Yanks. Each got a home run and Alvin Crowder managed to turn back the champions, even though the Browns were outbatted by 10 hits to five. Babe Ruth's twenty-fourth homer of the season was wasted.

Danny MacFayden, bespectacled Red Sox twirler, held the White Sox hitless for seven innings and trimmed theb, 3 to 1. The Sox managed to get four hits in the last two innings.

NEW CLASSIC ON CHICAGO TRACK

Race Promoters Hang Up Rich Purse for Crack Yankee Colts.

CHICAGO, June 16—(AP)— The American Thoroughbred Championship, a new $25,000 stake for two-year-olds and upward, will be sponsored by the American National Jockey club as an added feature for Arlington Park's 17-day summer racing season.

The event, which will be over a mile and one-eighth is expected to attract the best blue ribbon winners of America, including Reigh Count, Vito, Victorian, Port Harlem, Toro and Misstep. Its inaugural will be Sept. 1.

Victorian Faces Starter.

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—Victorian, Harry Payne Whitney's Preakness and Withers victor goes to the post in the Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct today—but not as a favorite. That honor is reserved for Black Maria largely because of Victorian's poor showing in the Belmont, when he finished fifth in a six-horse race.

Black Maria was quoted at three to 1, with Victorian, coupled with twitter as the Whitney entry, at five to one.

Ten horses have been named to start in the mile and an eighth classic, worth this year in the neighborhood of $17,500.

In addition to Victorian, Twitter and Black Maria, Chance Shot, Brown Flash, Dangerous, Diavolo, Black Panther, File-Maker and Scapa Flow are scheduled to face the barrier.

STARS ROUND UP LAKE CITY LINKS

Golf's Greatest Players Prepare Compete In National Open.

CHICAGO, June 16—(AP)— Champions from around the world began to register at Olympia Fields country club today for the national open golf championship next week. In the van was one of the prime favorites, Bobby Jones, while the defending titleholder, Tommy Armour of Washington, was on the way to whet his weapons against the assaults of 148 of the earth's best golfers.

Armour, who did not do very well last year over the No. 4 course, at Olympia in the western open, is said to be at the top of his game now, having scored a record card of 63 recently at his home club. Good, bold iron shots will count at Olympia, and Armour is noted as an iron shotmaker. Jones, if he has any weakness, ascribes it to his irons.

Wood Comes In Handy.

Wooden clubs and putters, however, are also a great asset on the No. 4 links and not even Bobby has ever said that he was not master of them.

Bill Mehlhorn and Aubrey Boomer of France paid a brief call at the club yesterday, each scoring 73, or two above par from the forward tees. Archie Compston, British star, was also at the club, but he compiled no card for publication. He will soon renew his feud with Walter Hagen, although "The Haig" is not expected to play until the tourney starts Thursday.

Walter Knows Course.

Hagen knows the layout by heart, for over its undulating sward he won the P. G. A. title two years ago, setting a record of 67 for the links, and last summer he captured his third western open title there.

Compston and Boomer today were in Kalamazoo for an exhibition and plan to play another at Park Ridge club, Chicago, tomorrow against Jock Hutchison and Al Hackbarth.

Cooper and Sarazen.

Harry Cooper of Buffalo, who lost the playoff to Armour last year, and Gene Sarazen of New York are expected to start practice at Olympia Fields early next week. They predict that Armour will not repeat and point out that never but once in the history of the event has the same man won it twice in a row. That was in 1911-12, when John McDermott was in his prime.
